Villa Caridad

Region: Tenerife Sleeps: 9

Overview

Welcome to your dream holiday retreat in the picturesque village of Tacoronte, where history meets tranquillity in one of Tenerife's most charming settings. Nestled within the embrace of this quiet and private village, the four bedroom Villa Caridad offers an idyllic escape for those seeking the perfect blend of historical charm and modern luxury.

As you step into the outdoor haven, a lush garden awaits, adorned with fruit trees, palm trees, and fragrant rose bushes. A unique vertical garden graces the surroundings of the inviting heated pool, providing an oasis of relaxation, and a fabulous spot for gazing upon the majestic Mount Teide. Adjacent to this serene space, a barbecue and wood oven stand ready to create unforgettable gastronomic moments beneath the sun-drenched sky - pure bliss!

Inside, this classic villa unfolds across two spacious floors and a captivating entertainment area in the basement. At Villa Caridad guests are invited to immerse themselves in a seamless fusion of historic elegance and contemporary comfort, with a ground floor that features a stylish lounge area and a dining room complete with fireplace to cast a warm glow on winter nights. A well-appointed kitchen also awaits, equipped with top-of-the-line appliances, including an oven, fridge, freezer, dishwasher, coffee maker, teapot, DolceGusto Coffee maker, toaster, squeezer, and food blender. Two double bedrooms, a single bedroom, and two bathrooms with showers complete the ground floor, providing a haven of rest and relaxation for the whole group.

On the upper floor you'll discover an independent apartment within the villa, featuring a living room with a kitchenette, a double bedroom, and a full bathroom. This unique design feature makes Villa Caridad a great accommodation choice for two or more families holidaying together, or for families who are travelling with parents/grandparents or older teens.

Whether you're exploring historical wonders or embarking on cycling adventures through the mountainous landscapes, Villa Caridad in Tacoronte promises a holiday of enchantment and relaxation.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in the heart of the charming village of Tacoronte, Villa Caridad beckons you to explore a tapestry of historical wonders and natural beauty in one of Tenerife's most enchanting locales. A tranquil oasis, the village is a haven for those seeking respite from the hustle and bustle, providing an ideal backdrop for a relaxing holiday.

Surrounded by the rich history of Tacoronte, guests can embark on leisurely strolls through cobblestone streets, discovering architectural gems that showcase the area's colonial past. The village itself offers a quaint ambiance, with local cafes and eateries inviting you to savour authentic Canarian cuisine and unwind with a glass of locally produced wine.

For history enthusiasts, the Church of St. Catherine stands as a testament to the village's enduring heritage, its Gothic architecture whispering tales of centuries gone by. The nearby Historical Archive of Tacoronte also invites exploration, housing a trove of documents that chronicle the area's evolution.

Nature lovers will be captivated by the surrounding landscapes, with the villa providing a gateway to the mesmerising mountainous terrain of Tenerife. Ideal for cycling enthusiasts, the region boasts scenic routes that wind through picturesque landscapes, offering breathtaking views of the island's diverse topography. Venture further afield, and the iconic Mount Teide National Park awaits, a UNESCO World Heritage Site where the majestic Teide volcano dominates the horizon. Immerse yourself in the unique flora and fauna that thrives in this volcanic sanctuary, and if adventure calls, consider ascending Mount Teide itself for an awe-inspiring panorama.
