Villa Zecalo

Region: Comporta Sleeps: 14

Overview

Nestled in the idyllic Melides region, Villa Zecalo is a spacious retreat surrounded by lush gardens and within easy reach of the beautiful beaches of Comporta. Designed with larger families and groups in mind, the villa is set within one building divided into three interconnected modules, offering an appealing balance between shared spaces and privacy.

Each module features its own kitchen and living room, allowing different families or groups of friends to enjoy their own space. At the heart of the villa, the central house boasts a bright, open-plan living area with contemporary furnishings and a large dining table seating up to 16 guests, creating a wonderful setting for gathering over leisurely meals.

Outside, expansive gardens provide plenty of room to unwind beneath the Portuguese sunshine. The heated infinity pool takes centre stage, complemented by inviting chill-out areas, an alfresco dining space and a dedicated fitness and yoga deck.

With generous communal spaces alongside independent living areas, Villa Zecalo provides a flexible base for groups looking to spend time together while exploring the beaches, countryside and laid-back surroundings of Melides and Comporta.

What we love

- Housekeeping services are provided for 2 hours daily, ensuring a comfortable and well-maintained stay, with the exception of Sundays.
- The villa features a heated pool, allowing for a relaxing swim regardless of the season.
- Covered parking is available on-site, offering convenience and protection for your vehicle during your stay.

What you should know...

- The pool area requires an attentive eye on children, as it is not gated for safety.
- Unfortunately, pets are not allowed at Villa Zecalo, making it less suitable for families travelling with their furry companions.
- A car is necessary to fully explore the surrounding area, as the villa is located a bit outside the main town and beaches.
