Maison La Perouse

Region: Brittany Sleeps: 8

Overview

Surrounded by four acres of lawns, fruit trees and woodland, Maison La Pérouse is a beautifully restored country home in the heart of the Breton countryside. This home is a wonderful choice for families seeking a mix of nature, adventure and seaside charm in northern Brittany. From the moment you arrive, a sense of quiet contentment sets in. Days unfold slowly here, whether you're relaxing beside the heated pool, enjoying an al-fresco lunch on the shaded terrace or watching the children play freely on the trampoline and lawn.

Inside, the house has been thoughtfully renovated to blend traditional character with modern comfort. Light pours into the open-plan living and dining area, where exposed beams and tiled floors create a warm, welcoming atmosphere. The stylish kitchen is fully equipped with everything needed for relaxed family meals, including a range cooker and an American-style fridge freezer. With four bedrooms across two first-floor wings, three of them en-suite, Maison La Pérouse sleeps up to 8 guests.

The surrounding region invites exploration. Just 23km away lies the breathtaking Mont Saint-Michel, rising dramatically from the tidal flats, one of France's most visited destinations and a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Just a short drive away, La Forêt de Villecartier promises a full day of outdoor fun, with forest trails perfect for walks or bike rides, pony rides and the enchanting Port Miniature, where children can captain their own tiny boat across the lake. The Parc des Grands Chênes offers tree-top adventures for older kids and teens, adding a touch of adrenaline to your holiday – all facilities are open seasonally.

Closer to home, the charming market village of Bazouges-la-Pérouse is only 3.5km away, offering everyday conveniences and a delightful Thursday market. Further afield, the elegant coastal towns of Saint-Malo and Dinard beckon with their sandy beaches, crêperies, and sea views, while the medieval streets of Dol-de-Bretagne and historic Combourg promise enriching days out.

Whether you're seeking a laid-back family holiday or a base for exploring the wonders of Brittany and Normandy, Maison La Pérouse offers a setting where memories are made at an unhurried pace.

Location & Local Information

In the open countryside of northern Brittany, just a short drive from the iconic Mont Saint-Michel, Maison La Pérouse is a charming base from which to explore the treasures of the Ille-et-Vilaine region.

The local village of Bazouges-la-Pérouse (3.5km) offers all the essentials, including a local supermarket, restaurant and a bustling Thursday street market filled with fresh local produce and Breton delicacies. Surrounded by open fields and leafy lanes, the village is steeped in character with its traditional stone houses, narrow lanes and welcoming atmosphere. In the other direction, the neighbouring village of Trans-la-Forêt (5km) is home to a boulangerie and café-bar.

The location is ideal for exploring one of France's most awe-inspiring landmarks, Mont Saint-Michel, located just 23km away. This UNESCO World Heritage Site rises majestically from the tidal bay, drawing visitors from across the globe.

Elsewhere, the market town of Pontorson (14km) and the delightful medieval town of Combourg (15km) provide excellent shopping, dining and local culture. Combourg in particular is famed for its striking château and lakeside setting, offering a wonderful blend of history and natural beauty. The historic town of Dol-de-Bretagne (19km) also enchants with its medieval streets, welcoming restaurants and independent shops, less than half an hour by car.

Coastal adventures also await with the refined resort towns of Saint-Malo (47km) and Dinard (51km) offering golden beaches, vibrant seafood restaurants and elegant promenades. Saint-Malo's fortified walls and maritime heritage contrast beautifully with Dinard's belle époque villas and relaxed beach scene. Even closer, Plage de Cherrueix (25km) is less than half an hour by car.

Whether you're paddling in the surf, sampling oysters by the sea, or soaking in the Breton sunshine, the beaches of northern Brittany deliver an unforgettable escape.
