Casa Terracotta

Region: Comporta Sleeps: 16

Overview

Casa Terracotta is a striking contemporary retreat set within Comporta's protected pine forests, where thoughtful architecture and carefully considered interiors create a strong connection with the surrounding landscape. Designed as a series of interconnected pavilions linked by timber walkways, the villa offers generous social spaces alongside peaceful corners, making it equally suited to large family holidays and celebrations with friends.

At its heart, the main pavilion brings everyone together with an open-plan living and dining area, featuring timber-beamed ceilings, terrazzo floors and a fireplace that adds warmth throughout the seasons. Two fully equipped kitchens make entertaining effortless, while a separate library provides a quieter space to unwind. An independent guest pavilion with its own kitchenette offers additional flexibility and privacy for multi-generational groups.

Outside, life revolves around the heated infinity pool, expansive sun deck and shaded dining terrace, all surrounded by native dune gardens. Guests can also make the most of exceptional wellness facilities, including a private gym, Finnish sauna, steam room, cinema and climate-controlled wine cellar.

Accommodating up to sixteen guests across six beautifully designed bedrooms, Casa Terracotta combines contemporary comfort with the relaxed character that has made Comporta one of Portugal's most sought-after coastal destinations. With the beach just a short drive away and direct access to the surrounding dunes, it offers an effortless base for experiencing this unique stretch of coastline.

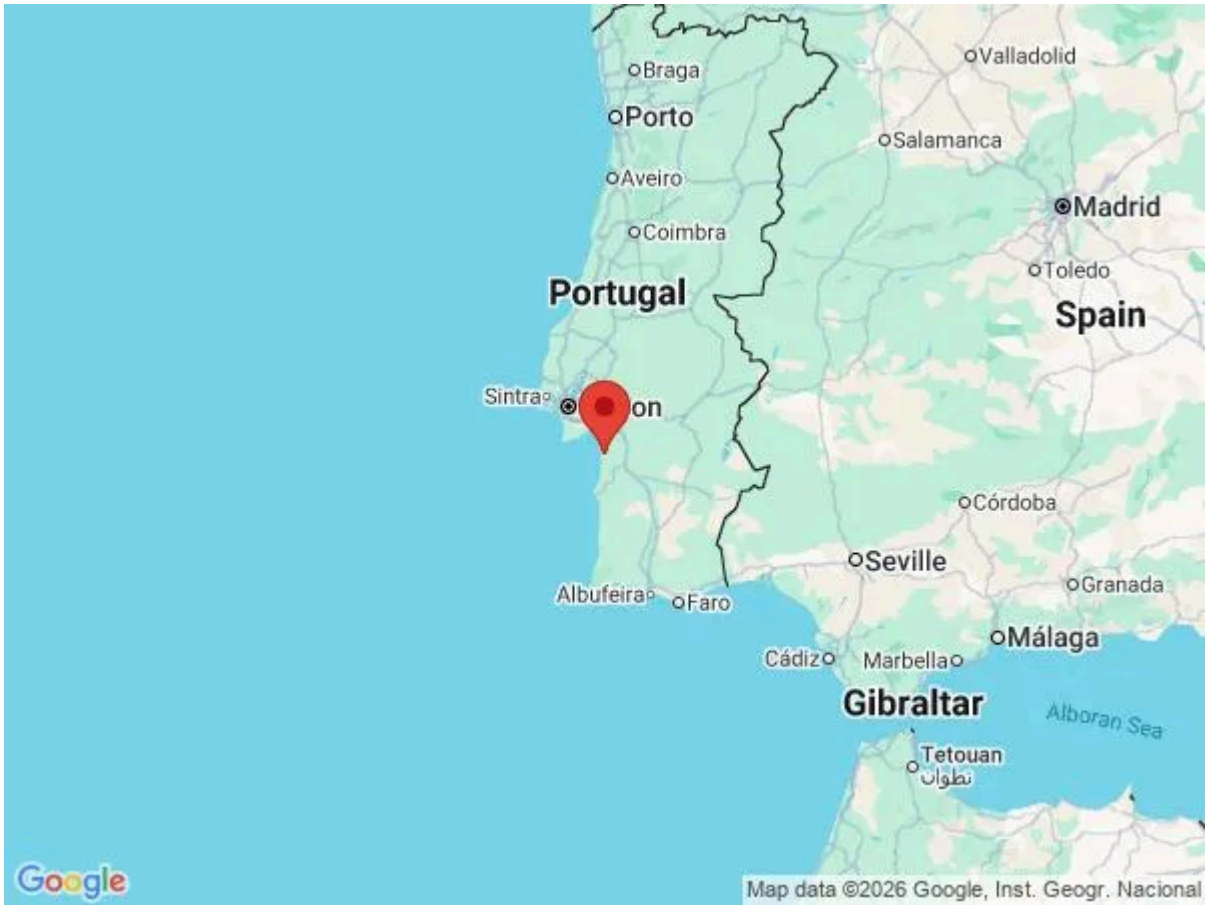
Location & Local Information

Casa Terracotta enjoys a privileged position in Comporta, surrounded by protected pine forests and rolling sand dunes that define this distinctive stretch of Portugal's Alentejo coast. The villa offers a peaceful setting while remaining within easy reach of the region's celebrated beaches, where wide expanses of golden sand and excellent conditions for swimming, surfing and long coastal walks await.

Comporta village is just a short drive away, offering a relaxed collection of boutiques, artisan shops and well-regarded restaurants showcasing fresh seafood and regional produce. Beyond the coast, guests can explore rice fields, cycling trails and nature reserves that are home to a rich variety of birdlife, while horse riding along the beach has become one of the area's signature experiences. The nearby fishing hamlet of Carrasqueira, with its distinctive wooden stilt harbour, provides a glimpse into the region's heritage, and day trips to Melides or the Sado Estuary are easily within reach. Combining natural beauty with a laid-back atmosphere, Casa Terracotta is perfectly placed for discovering one of Portugal's most sought-after coastal destinations.



What we love

- The pavilion-style design creates a wonderful balance of generous social spaces and quieter areas for guests to relax.
- The private wellness facilities, including a gym, Finnish sauna, steam room and cinema room, bring an opulent retreat feel to every stay.
- The heated infinity pool and spacious outdoor dining areas make it easy to enjoy long days outside with family and friends.

What you should know...

- The villa is arranged across several interconnected pavilions linked by outdoor walkways, which may not suit guests seeking all accommodation under one roof.
- The swimming pool is unfenced, so children should be supervised at all times.
