Location & Local Information

Nestled in the charming village of Stiffkey, Cassia Cottage offers the perfect retreat for families and their four-legged friends. Just a short walk from the stunning North Norfolk coast, it's an ideal base for beach adventures, with endless sand for kids to play and dogs to roam. The North Norfolk Coastal Path and Peddars Way are also nearby, providing scenic walks through the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). With a village shop and pub within easy walking distance, your stay will be both convenient and relaxing.

A short drive opens up the beauty of North Norfolk's picturesque villages and towns. Visit Burnham Market for its boutique shops and cafés, or explore the charming harbour town of Wells-next-the-Sea. Blakeney's famous seals and the market town of Holt, known for its Georgian architecture and independent shops, are also within easy reach. Cassia Cottage is the perfect base for discovering Norfolk's coastal treasures.

What we love

- The location is exceptional, nestled amidst breathtaking natural scenery and just a short distance from stunning beaches.
- Cassia Cottage is dog-friendly, making it the perfect getaway for families who want to bring their furry friends along for the adventure!
- The hot tub is a fantastic addition, providing the perfect spot to unwind after a day at the beach or exploring North Norfolk.

What you should know...

- A highchair and cot are provided for guests traveling with young children.
- Cassia Cottage features ground floor bedrooms and a bathroom, making it a potentially ideal choice for guests with mobility issues. However, please note that there are a few steps at the entrance of the property.
- While there is a small shop and pub within walking distance, we recommend bringing a car to fully explore the beauty of the North Norfolk coast.
