Overview

Nestled on the banks of the meandering River Wye, this charming 3-bedroom cottage is a haven for those seeking a retreat surrounded by the breathtaking vistas of the Black Mountains. With miles of undulating countryside and endless stretches of riverside to explore, Firefly Cottage isn't just a luxury self-catering home; it's an invitation to savour life's simple pleasures.

As you swing open the door, you step into an open-plan living and kitchen space adorned with underfloor heating. Light spills in from every angle, revealing panoramic views of the surrounding countryside. Guests are invited to sink into the two huge squishy sofas or perch on the oversized bean bags, perfect for gazing at the stars through the expansive floor-to-ceiling window, while, for your entertainment, a large drop-down projector screen adds cinematic flair to cosy evenings.

Cooking and dining together at Firefly Cottage is a joy, with a kitchen, meticulously stocked, that beckons you to whip up a feast, while the dining table, with ample seating for eight, is a central hub for shared meals. Adjacent, a spacious bathroom boasts a walk-in shower and a luxurious roll-top bath—both enhanced by the warmth of underfloor heating.

Upstairs, guests will discover three spacious and elegantly decorated bedrooms, each a sanctuary of tranquillity. Two of the rooms offer versatile super king zip and link beds, while the third bedroom features a king-size bed and a single - ideal for families. Blackout blinds ensure lazy mornings, and windows frame views of the majestic Black Mountains; a real sight to behold. An additional bathroom upstairs, complete with a generous walk-in shower, adds convenience during your stay.

From the landing, a door leads to a large wooden decking area, adorned with outdoor sofas, plants, and fairy lights—a perfect vantage point for evenings bathed in the warm glow of the setting sun, while owls hoot and bats dance across the sky.

Accommodating 7 guests inside, Firefly Cottage generously extends space for entertaining or inviting an additional 13 guests for meals or camping in the gardens. Ideal for self-catering holidays, family gatherings, and celebrations, The cottage's magic extends beyond its walls. The greenhouse and open barn provide enchanting spaces for gatherings, while the walled garden is a special retreat for picnics and drinks. Although currently lacking a wedding licence, the promise of this enchanting space is palpable, with plans in the works!

In the heart of nature, surrounded by captivating landscapes, Firefly Cottage is more than just accommodation—it's an immersive experience, a canvas for creating memories that linger like the view of the Black Mountains at twilight.

Location & Local Information

Perched on the banks of the River Wye, this idyllic cottage finds itself in a location that reads like a nature lover's dream. The enchanting backdrop of the Black Mountains frames the scenery, offering a breathtaking panorama that sets the stage for a getaway infused with tranquillity and adventure.

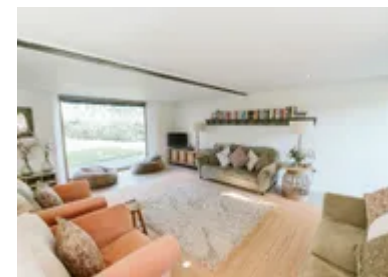

Step outside the cottage, and you're immediately immersed in a world of possibilities. The surrounding undulating countryside beckons for exploration, a patchwork of fields and meadows that beg to be discovered on foot. The lure of rural rambles is irresistible, leading you through hidden paths and revealing vistas that seem to stretch on forever.

For those with a penchant for the majestic heights, the nearby Black Mountains offer a haven for hikers and walkers alike. Miles of trails wind through the landscape, unveiling the allure of peaks and valleys waiting to be conquered. Each step brings you closer to the summit, where panoramic views of the surrounding countryside become your reward.

The River Wye, a constant companion to the cottage, extends an invitation for more than just contemplation. Its gentle waters call out to fishing enthusiasts, promising a tranquil day spent casting lines and relishing the camaraderie of the sport. The riverbanks become a canvas for riverside picnics and the setting for wild swimming adventures—a refreshing escapade under the open sky.

Back at the cottage, the expansive gardens provide a canvas for outdoor enthusiasts. There's space not just for guests inside, but a generous spread for inviting friends and family to join for a day or a night of camping under the stars. It's a place where laughter around a campfire and the rustle of leaves in the night create memories that linger long after the embers fade.

With Foyles pub within walking distance in the village, the local flavour is easily savoured. The charm of the area lies not just in the cottage itself, but in the harmonious blend of nature's wonders and the simple pleasures that abound—a true haven for those seeking to unwind, explore, and create lasting memories in the embrace of the great outdoors.

What we love

- We loved the bright, spacious layout of Firefly Cottage - it's the perfect retreat for larger groups
- The views from the cottage are incredible, allowing guests to be at one with nature
- It was wonderful to be able to invite additional guests to entertain, with plenty of space for meals, camping and entertaining

What you should know...

- Two of the bedrooms have super-king beds that can be separated into single beds
- The cottage is ideal for family celebrations and events, but doesn't yet hold a licence for weddings
- Firefly cottage enjoys quiet, rural surrounds, so is unsuitable for those looking for a more bustling, cosmopolitan location
