

Foxglove Farmhouse

Region: The North East Sleeps: 6

Overview

Foxglove Farmhouse is a beautiful 17th-century retreat nestled within the 3,000-acre Yorkshire Dales Estate near Skipton. Perfect for families or groups of friends, this luxurious farmhouse blends historic charm with modern comfort, offering three characterful bedrooms, a mezzanine snug, two inviting living spaces, and a gorgeous country kitchen. Surrounded by rolling hills and heathered moorland, it's an idyllic setting for those seeking tranquility and connection with nature.

The Estate is steeped in history, dating back to 1097. Today, it offers an unparalleled range of amenities, including woodland trails, reservoirs, and formal 18th-century gardens. Guests can rejuvenate at the state-of-the-art wellness center with its tranquil hydro-massage pool and organic-shaped sauna or explore unique activities like wild swimming, guided forest therapy walks, and foraging experiences. For moments of celebration, the estate's exclusive dining options create unforgettable experiences.

Situated near Skipton, the "Gateway to the Dales," the farmhouse enjoys proximity to vibrant markets, Skipton Castle, and iconic landmarks like Malham Cove. Inside, guests can unwind by the inglenook fireplace in the cosy living room or admire the double-height beams and historic stonework in the second lounge. Whether exploring the estate's wonders, gazing at the breathtaking Three Peaks, or curling up with a good book, Foxglove Farmhouse offers an extraordinary escape where history, luxury, and nature converge.
