Location & Local Information

Casa de Campo resort, near the city of La Romana in the Dominican Republic, enjoys a reputation as the best in the country. With a comprehensive range of facilities including three highly-rated golf courses, it offers a luxurious experience with plenty to see and do.

Among the resort's sports facilities are tennis courts, a shooting range, soccer school and an equestrian centre, and there are numerous opportunities to try water-sports from sailing to kayaking and sea-fishing. The resort also offers fitness and wellness facilities, with a gym and spa both available to guests.

The private Minitas Beach is another highlight, combining informal dining with live music, DJ's, and stunning views of the Caribbean Sea. Other restaurants offer international and local cuisine in styles such as French, Spanish, Italian and Mexican. Outside the resort, nearby La Romana offers many more dining opportunities, as well as shopping, clubs, casinos and more beautiful beaches.

A particular attraction for visitors is Altos de Chavon, a village which appears old but, in fact, isn't. Painstakingly created, the work only began in the late 1970's but the results are incredible. The amazing open-air amphitheatre is a real triumph and has welcomed many of the music world's biggest and best. A cultural centre and various artists' studios and galleries give Altos a real creative spirit too.

What we love

- This property is in a wonderfully peaceful, secluded spot, yet has many of the resort amenities within a few minutes' drive
- You have your own private pool and a pretty terrace with seating and dining area right next to it
- The open-plan interior has a light and slightly rustic feel, with beautiful antique furnishings adding to the vibe
- Among the nearby amenities are the Casa de Campo marina, tropical swimming pool, spa and a private beach

What you should know...

- Be careful whilst opening the sliding windows, as they are fragile
- Mind your step whilst entering the pool, as there is a ledge
- Children are welcome at Villa Batista but ensure they are monitored at all times
