Location & Local Information

Palm Island is small yet beautiful and is situated in the Grenadines, just a mile from Union Island. Home to no less than five glorious beaches, this 135-acre, palm tree-covered paradise (formerly known as Prune Island) is the perfect destination for those looking to unwind and relax. The island is home to the luxurious Palm Island Beach Club hotel, complete with a sumptuous spa and a plant nursery which cultivates fresh produce for the island's restaurants. The hotel provides employment for local people and is the hub of the local community.

The island is a haven for wildlife, and guests staying on the island will be able to spot iguanas, geckos and hermit crabs during their stay. Life here moves at a slow, relaxed pace, with visitors spending their time reading and relaxing on the beach or enjoying leisurely games of tennis and croquet. Kayaking and snorkelling are also popular pastimes on Palm Island, and for a truly memorable experience, be sure to take a swim with the sea turtles in the clear, turquoise waters. Another 'must-do' activity during your stay is walking or cycling, and there are three nature trails on the island to choose from, all of which will take you through Palm Island's lush vegetation, where you can spot exotic birds as well as some of the other local fauna. Boat excursions are also available if you want to venture out and explore some of the other Grenadine archipelago islands, but if you really can't tear yourself away from the white sandy beaches, enjoy delicious local fare at the beachside restaurants, book a private hammock picnic, or enjoy yoga and meditation at the thatched-roof beach pavilion.

With its romantic setting and quiet, private atmosphere, it won't come as a surprise that Palm Island is a dream location for couples celebrating their honeymoon or anniversary - or even as a spot to pop the question! The resort features glorious spa facilities, including treatment rooms and hot tubs - perfect for an afternoon of indulgent luxury, before soaking with a glass of champagne and taking in the breathtaking Grenadine sunsets.
