Villa Samera

Region: Peljesac Peninsula Sleeps: 5

Overview

Villa Samera is an impressive cottage that enjoys the prime location of being right by the sea and boasts vistas over the high green hills and glistening blue sea waters.

Outside, you can swim in the lovely private pool while looking out over the glittering sea. After trying out the pool, the sea waters will invite you in for a dip and with them being so close, why not? On the pool deck, a quaint dining area comes complete with a barbecue where tasty al fresco dishes can be created. Sunny breakfasts amongst friends and family will be a delight here.

The home's exterior lounge is styled in calming shades of dark blue and grey and is perfect for relaxing on. You'll be forgiven for falling to sleep as the dazzling sun rays gently warm your face - what a great way to spend the day! If the heat becomes too much, cool off in the outdoor shower.

Villa Samera's interior uses greys, blues and whites to create a soft and tranquil ambience. The home benefits from contemporary decor and modern appliances throughout, including a kitchen that cooking enthusiasts will marvel at.

All bedrooms are bright and airy and beautifully enhanced by natural light coming in through the large windows.

Location & Local Information

Muzej Apoksiomena is a fantastic museum located in the town of Mali Losinj that not just those who love history will enjoy. Cleverly designed, the museum is centred around one statue. The statue that attracts so many satisfied visitors is an Ancient Greek statue, also known as the Apoxyomenos. The museum presents an interesting way to learn about Croatian and world history.

The captivating bronze statue was discovered 45 meters below sea near to the island Lošinj in 1997 before being removed two years later. The museum is dedicated to the story of the Apoxyomenos and its discovery. The statue has been displayed at some of the most prominent museums worldwide.

Be at one with the great outdoors at Cikat Forest Park. The gorgeous park has lovely trails for biking and possesses plenty of imposing trees with sunlight peeking through the branches. The nature at this park not only provides a lovely sight to admire but lets off a wonderful fragrance, making you feel like you've found paradise.

Swimming in the glistening lake or walking quietly while wondering are lovely ways to enjoy this park. Families can pack up a tasty picnic and have fun lying on the grass in the summertime.
