

Villa Bronte

Region: Brittany Sleeps: 4

Overview

Discover rustic charm in the heart of Plouguerneau with this quaint Creole house. A stone's throw from the beach, this humble abode offers a simple yet authentic escape from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

With its warm and colourful decoration, Villa Bronte is typical of houses in the region; step inside to find cosy interiors, splashed with colour and unique furnishings. Choose to relax in the living room by the TV, or venture out to the garden, where there are many places to sit down and take in the fresh coastal air.

Whip up home-cooked meals in the kitchen using locally sourced ingredients and gather around the dining table, inside or out, which is great for all-weathered trips.

Outside, the landscaped garden beckons, offering a place for true relaxation and privacy. Grab a book and lounge in the shaded hammock, or lie back on one of the garden chairs. Energetic children can play a game of football or volleyball in the garden - this will keep them entertained for hours! Venture out to explore the rugged coastline and discover hidden coves and secluded beaches waiting to be explored. Escape the ordinary and embrace the simplicity of life at this charming villa retreat.

Location & Local Information

Surrounded by 45km of plains and steep cliffs, Plouguerneau is located in the heart of the Pays des Abers and rich in cultural activities for families of all ages. Begin with the inescapable dolmens. The one in Lilia displays no less than 9 meters of wingspan and is a classified Historical Monument. Further on, you can admire the site of Iliz Koz. Follow the itinerary, which takes you through the ruins and follows onto an adjoining museum.

For something a little different, Plouguerneau, famous for its seaweed harvest, invites you to visit the eco-museum of seaweed and algae, where you will be able to discover the multiple applications of this particular alga.

And for those with a penchant for watersports, the sailing club offers a range of activities such as sailing, windsurfing and catamaran trips. But if you'd rather stay on land, there are many places to go hiking or horse riding - it is up to you to choose your means of transport to discover the surrounding countryside.
