

Chateau De Gombert

Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 16

Overview

On a cliff overlooking the Dordogne River, the Chateau de Gombert, a 14th century castle in the Midi-Pyrenees, combines luxury living and French tradition. Dine on a stone terrace whose archways have breathtaking views, and swim in a pool on 5 hectares of wooded grounds.

The chateau's renovated interior includes the original stone walls but all the comforts you need. The bedrooms feature en-suite bathrooms, which allow families travelling together to have private space. The living room has an impressive stone fireplace, and the fully equipped kitchen is ready for your culinary creations. If you'd prefer to relax, daily housekeeping and breakfast service is available.

At this French luxury villa, you're near the best of the Dordogne and Lot areas. The town of Souillac (16 km) has the shops you need, as well as a charming museum of automated toys. For a longer trip, visit Sarlat-le-Caneda (36 km), a market town ideal for foodies, or Rocamadour (20 km), a pilgrimage town with stunning cliff-side views. Not in the mood to travel? There's a Michelin star restaurant just 2 km away.

The Chateau de Gombert is near Brive (35 km), Limoges (153 km) and Toulouse (168 km) airports.

What we love

- Named one of Europe's 10 best luxury villas for 2016 by The Telegraph, this chateau has excellent views from the private infinity pool
- The property owner runs a Michelin-starred restaurant nearby
- The chateau is in a fantastic location to go canoeing down the Dordogne river!
- The nearby town of Souillac (16km) has a lovely authentic market, selling fresh and local produce every Friday

What you should know...

- There is space for 2 cars right outside the chateau and 3 more cars can fit on the drive just at the main entrance
- From the terrace, you'll be delighted by the views of a 15th century church. The sound of their charming bells never disturbs the incredible calm of this place.
- Looking to holiday with family or friends? The owners' beautifully restored 5-bedroom manoir, Chartreuse Des Roses (<https://www.oliverstravels.com/france/dordogne/chartreuse-des-roses/>), is just 5km away
