Apartment Moscou offers a delightful blend of vintage Parisian charm and contemporary simplicity, making it the ideal retreat for those looking to experience the true heart of Paris. Nestled near the vibrant Batignolles neighbourhood and a stone's throw from the artistic Montmartre, this two-bedroom apartment combines comfort and style in a homely and inspiring way.

As you step into the apartment, the living room immediately welcomes you with its light-filled space. The tall Parisian windows flood the room with natural light, highlighting the crisp, white corniced ceilings and elegant antique furnishings. The mix of vintage furniture and soft floral accents strikes a warm, inviting tone, perfect for relaxing after a day exploring the city. A few thoughtful touches of modern art on the walls add a playful contrast, making the room feel both timeless and fresh.

Though compact, the kitchen is sleek and functional with a monochrome colour scheme that's eye-catching and calming. It's well-equipped for those evenings when you prefer to stay in and cook, with plenty of counter space for preparing meals. There's also a lovely dining area where you can sit back and enjoy your food in peace.

Moving through the apartment, the principal bedroom provides a serene escape with its light, soft tones and minimalist design. The bathrooms continue the apartment's understated elegance, with sleek grey finishes, modern fixtures, and everything you need for a comfortable stay — a bath with an overhead shower in one, and a walk-in shower in the other.
