

Villa Daim

Region: Heraklion Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Daim is nestled high on a gentle hill in the peaceful village of Skoteino, Gouves. As you arrive, you're immediately struck by the villa's sense of space, its elegant design blending seamlessly with the surrounding natural beauty. The views are truly spectacular, with the sea and mountains stretching out before you, offering a perfect backdrop to this tranquil retreat.

Stepping inside, you're greeted by interiors that feel both stylish and effortlessly comfortable. The living areas have been thoughtfully designed to create an atmosphere of ease and sophistication. The expansive space is filled with carefully chosen furnishings, each piece selected for its impeccable quality. The colour palette is calm and neutral, allowing the beautiful views to take centre stage through the large windows. The open-plan design effortlessly connects the living area with the outdoor spaces, making it perfect for relaxation and entertaining. The first floor invites you to unwind in a cosy living area, with a dining space and a fully equipped kitchen that opens to an outdoor barbecue area—ideal for dining al fresco beneath the Crete sky.

Upstairs, the villa's four spacious double bedrooms promise a restful stay. The second floor has three exquisite bedrooms, each with its own modern ensuite. Whether you prefer a refreshing shower or a soothing soak in a bathtub, you'll find your perfect sanctuary. The fourth bedroom on the ground floor is equally inviting, offering the same level of comfort and privacy, ensuring that every guest enjoys their own retreat.

The villa's outdoor space is equally as indulgent. The large pool is the heart of the garden area, with plenty of space for lounging in the sun, surrounded by well-placed sunbeds and parasols. For evenings spent dining outdoors, the barbecue area, with its wood oven and dining table, creates the perfect setting for memorable meals. You can also relax in the various seating areas scattered around the villa, each offering its own stunning view.

Villa Daim is a true sanctuary, offering peace, privacy, and an elegant atmosphere that feels both indulgent and welcoming. Whether you're soaking in the panoramic views, enjoying the tranquil surroundings, or simply unwinding by the pool, this villa is the perfect place to escape and recharge.

Location & Local Information

Villa Daim is located in the charming village of Skoteino, Gouves, on the northern coast of Crete, offering a peaceful and scenic setting that makes it an ideal holiday destination. The villa is perched atop a hill, providing stunning panoramic views of both the sea and the surrounding mountains, creating a tranquil and serene atmosphere. Despite its peaceful seclusion, the villa is conveniently close to local amenities, with shops, restaurants, and cafes in the nearby Gouves area, just a short drive away. The lively town of Hersonissos, known for its vibrant nightlife, beaches, and attractions, is also within easy reach.

For those looking to explore Crete's rich history, the ancient ruins of Knossos and the Heraklion Archaeological Museum are nearby, offering a glimpse into the island's fascinating past. The island's beautiful beaches, including those of Gournes and Amnisos, are just a short drive away, perfect for sunbathing or water activities. Whether you're seeking relaxation, culture, or adventure, the location of Villa Daim offers the best of both worlds: a peaceful retreat with easy access to Cretan attractions.
