Location & Local Information

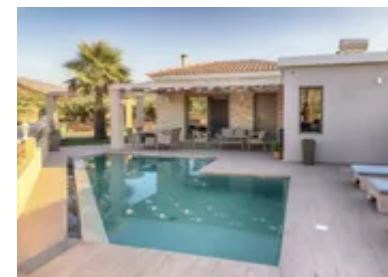

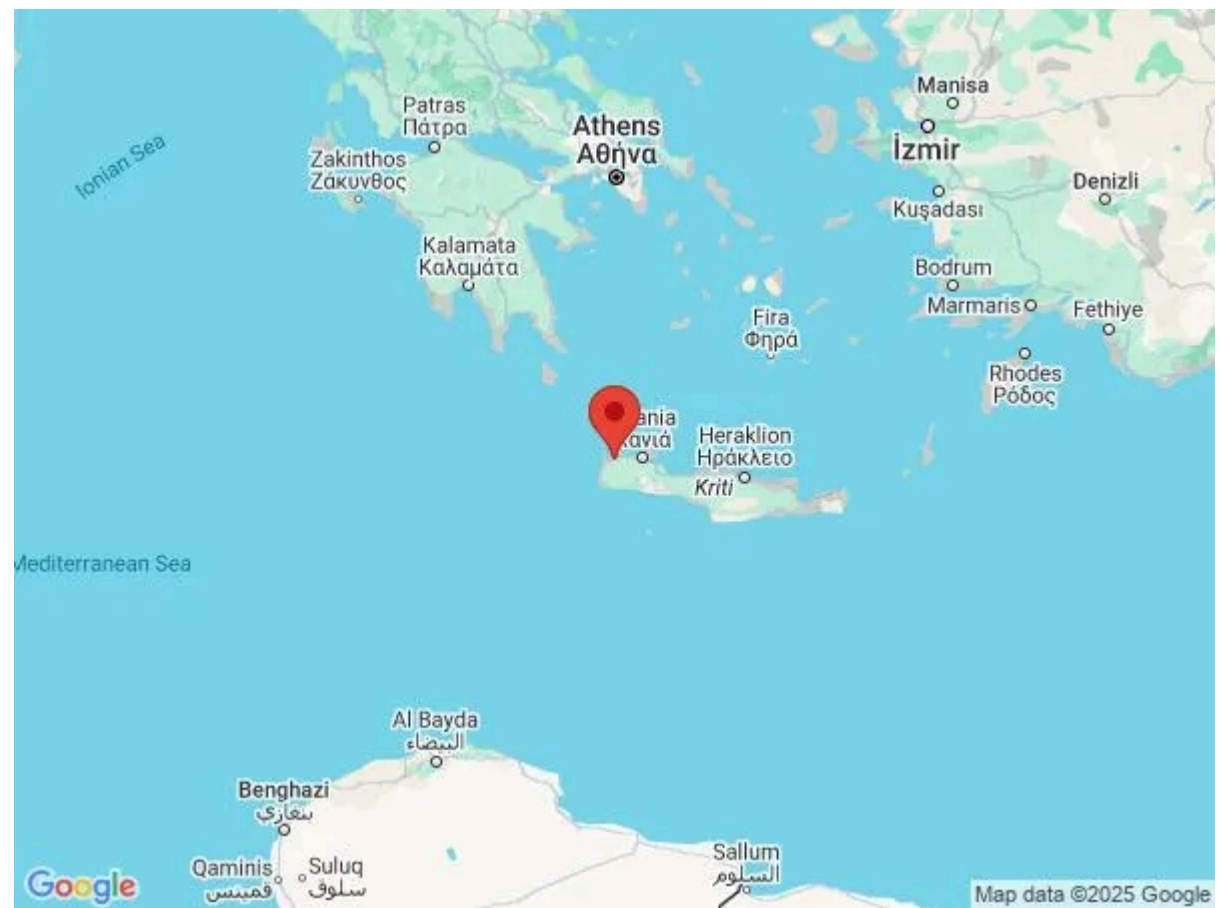

Villa Kissamos is located on the western side of Crete – Greece's largest and most populated island. Just 600m from the nearest beach, Drapanias, it enjoys incredible sea and mountain views. It's just 46km from Chania International Airport and a short 5km drive to the town of Kissamos, which is also known as Kastelli Port.

Kissamos is a popular seaside town that is unspoilt by tourism, but still offers a variety of attractions for visitors. In the summer there are regular cultural events in the town, allowing you to experience the authentic local lifestyle and take part in traditions. There are also lots of restaurants, tavernas, bars, cafes, boutiques and supermarkets available for your every need during your stay at the villa. The well-kept seaside promenade is a lovely place to enjoy a relaxing lunch or a sip on a glass of wine while enjoying views out to sea.

A magnet for bird watchers, hikers and nature lovers, Kissamos has also established itself as somewhat of a centre for eco-tourism. There are also lots of sightseeing opportunities in the town. You can visit the Archaeological Museum of Kissamos with a fantastic selection of artefacts from the Hellenic and Roman eras; or take a walk down Skalidi street to wonder at the architecture and explore local artisan craft shops. If you fancy going on an excursion, you can also hop on a ferry from the harbour in Kissamos to visit Kithira, Peloponnesian and Piraeus. Or take a cruise around Gramvousa and the famous Balos Lagoon.

Love a day at the beach? The island of Crete has some amazing beaches such as Falarsana – one of the most stunning beaches in the Mediterranean –; Episkopi and Petres which are popular with younger crowds; exotic Elafonisi to the south-west of Chania; the unmissable palm forest beach in Vai; and Agios Pavlos in the south with its huge sand dunes.
