Overview

Indulge in the epitome of coastal luxury at Villa Aristides, nestled in the picturesque village of Kitries, Greece. This five-bedroom haven offers a sanctuary for up to eleven guests, blending tranquility with contemporary elegance. Awaken to panoramic views of the Messinian gulf and embark on adventures in nearby Kalamata, just a short 15-minute drive away.

Within the villa, three spacious apartments provide ample room for families and groups to unwind. Step into the pristine garden and follow the path to your private slice of paradise on the secluded beach. Lounge under the Grecian sun or take a refreshing dip in the luxurious private pool on the open deck.

Inside, the villa exudes sophistication with chic, minimalist interiors bathed in natural light. Three inviting living rooms offer spaces to relax and connect, while open-plan kitchens beckon culinary adventures. From savouring Greek delicacies to sipping cocktails on the balcony, every moment is a celebration of Mediterranean living. Retreat to one of the four master bedrooms, each boasting plush double beds and en-suite bathrooms, or opt for the attic's double bedroom overlooking the azure horizon.

Embrace outdoor living with expansive terraces perfect for starlit dinners and morning coffee rituals. Whether hiking in the hills or indulging in spa treatments, Villa Aristides promises an unforgettable escape immersed in Greek charm and coastal bliss.
