

Villa Bouka 1

Region: Peloponnese Sleeps: 4

Overview

Scenic views, modern luxury and lush green foliage — Villa Bouka 1 is an all-season getaway in the Greek city of Kalamata. Set against the glorious Peloponnese mountains, it comfortably sleeps four adults in two bedrooms.

Spend hours of recreational time on the expansive open deck, surrounded by fragrant olive groves. Follow it up with a refreshing dip in the private outdoor pool, laze on comfy lounge chairs or catch some sun in the well-manicured garden. Al-fresco dining arrangements are provided, ideal for hearty meals.

The indoor-outdoor living area is bright and inviting, with natural colours and dewy white walls. Large glass sliders allow ample sunshine to flow in throughout. Tuck in for intimate meals at the adjacent dining table, the kitchen is fully functioning, kitted with wooden countertops and modern cabinetry. Call it a night in the two cosy bedrooms, while the master features king-size bed with ensuite and pool views, the other is equipped with twin beds.

Villa Bouka 1 guarantees a luxurious home-like experience with a variety of things to do nearby. Expect high-quality accommodation with ample space for families and couples to rejuvenate and unwind.

Location & Local Information

Villa Bouka 1 is located in one of Greece’s most stunning destinations. A haven for vacationers, Kalamata boasts a dazzling mix of seafront attractions and sweeping landscapes. Historically known as Kalamai or Fares in Homer's day, it’s set in the southwest region of Peloponnese. The city is situated in the Messinian Gulf at the base of Mount Kalathi (on the edge of Taygetos). It serves as the prefecture of Messenia's capital and a port for southern mainland Greece.

A treasure trove of picturesque beaches, Kalamata remains ever-popular among water sports enthusiasts. With a 5 km stretch of sultry sands from Verga to the city's port, you're promised a myriad of seafront hotels, eateries and bars. Rista Beach is just down the road from the villa. Its azure blue waters are ideal for fishing, canoeing and snorkelling. Other popular choices include Chalikias, Salio, Dolphins, Kalamitsi, Foneas and Neo Proastio.

Spend an afternoon foraging the cobblestone streets of Old Kardamyli. Go cafe hopping or marvel at the grand Tower of Mourtzinos. Visit the gorgeous church of Agios Spiridon. Built in Byzantium, it features an impressive belfry. There are several charming villages near Kardamyli that are well worth a visit. Enjoy the scenic beaches of Stoupa and savour the unique Byzantine culture in Agios Nikolaos. Check out the hidden gems of Itilo and Areopolis or explore the fascinating Diros caves.

You're sure to have an enriching time at the Museum of Victoria G Karelia, dive into the country's fascinating history and get a taste of its spell-binding culture. Take an exclusive media tour and learn all about traditional Greek costumes.

What we love

- 7km from the airport and an hour's drive from the hamlet of Kardamyli, Villa Bouka 1 couldn't be better located. A 2-and-a-half-hour drive will take you to the city of Athens, known for its well-preserved sculptures and captivating heritage sites from ancient Greece.
- A local teacher does a unique style of workout, in the form of animal movements.
- The villa is adjacent to Villa Bouka 2 (<https://www.oliverstravels.com/greece/peloponnese/villa-bouka-2/>), allowing big groups the option to book both properties together.

What you should know...

- The villa is semi detached, but separate entrances / driveways, you can book the neighbouring villa (<https://www.oliverstravels.com/greece/peloponnese/villa-bouka-2/>) too.
- Kids need to be under parental supervision, especially in the pool.
