Buzzing Albufeira is just a ten-minute car journey away. Friendly weekly markets are selling fresh fish, meat, bread, fruit and vegetables as well as local crafts. With lively bars and cafes, it has become a place to while away the evenings.

For children, apart from the nearby sandy beaches with calm water, there is a marina and Zoomarine water park in Albufeira, with animal shows, including dolphins and birds of prey, a 4D cinema, an aquarium, rides and plenty of places to eat.

The Algarve area is known for its fresh, local seafood.
