

Chalet Ariondaz

Region: 3 Valleys Sleeps: 12

Overview

Nestled within the pristine Domaine des Glaciers in Courchevel Moriond, the enchanting Chalet Ariondaz is a beacon of luxury and sophistication. This impressive chalet, spanning an expansive 257m², promises an impeccable alpine retreat. Chalet Ariondaz embodies every essence of refined interiors, an inviting relaxation haven, and unrivalled convenience with its proximity to the magnificent slopes of the world-renowned Three Valleys ski area.

This elegant chalet is spread across four levels, each accessible via a convenient elevator. Accommodating up to twelve guests, the ground floor has practical amenities such as a ski room, a laundry room, and an idyllic relaxation area boasting a rejuvenating sauna, indulgent jacuzzi, and a revitalizing shower. As you ascend to the second and third, you'll discover six elegant bedrooms, each a testament to luxury and equipped with a private en-suite bathroom.

The main entertaining spaces are situated under a high vaulted frame, where the kitchen, dining room, and living room unite in a vast open-plan layout that evokes the rustic charm of American Rockies chalets. Clean, contemporary lines marry the use of raw materials, such as the striking facing stone and a rich palette of deep wood tones, resulting in a chic and modern ambience that permeates every corner of this lavish abode.

One of the most enchanting aspects of Chalet Ariondaz is the opportunity to take in breathtaking views from the balconies and terraces on every level. The panoramas of Courchevel's slopes and the majestic peaks of Vanoise are nothing short of awe-inspiring, ensuring that the alpine landscape becomes an integral part of your stay.

Courchevel Moriond, bathed in sunshine and a haven for families, offers a delightful array of amenities. The main street is a veritable treasure trove of bars, restaurants, and shops, beckoning you to indulge in both gastronomic delights and retail therapy. The snowfront is home to the Piou Piou Club, the starting point for unforgettable ski lessons, and an array of vibrant restaurants set against a backdrop of joyful festivities. Your leisure is further enriched by the Aquamotion Centre, a sprawling hub of aquatic activities and relaxation, catering to the young and the young at heart alike.

In Chalet Ariondaz, the best of Courchevel is at your doorstep, where the allure of the Alps and the lap of luxury unite to create an unforgettable winter escape.

What we love

- Chalet Ariondaz boasts easy access to the world's largest ski area, the 3 Valleys, making it a dream for snow enthusiasts.
- The chalet's luxurious interiors and its cosy atmosphere create a perfect balance of luxury and homely charm.
- Every level offers balconies and terraces for soaking in stunning vistas of Courchevel's slopes and the Vanoise peaks.

What you should know...

- The property relies on an elevator for accessing its multiple levels, which may pose inconveniences in case of technical issues.
- Winter conditions can be challenging, so ensure you're well-prepared for icy walkways and slippery slopes.
- Courchevel Moriond's high elevation might require some adjustment; visitors should be mindful of altitude-related health considerations.
