Overview

Hidden away in the mountains of Courchevel is Chalet Reno, a beautiful modern ski chalet located in the private Bellecôte residential area. This chalet is the perfect spot to kick back and relax this winter, offering direct access to the slopes and a haven of luxury.

As you approach Chalet Reno, you are immediately drawn to its classic Alpine architecture that blends natural stone with its local wood structure. The interior is just as impressive, exuding an atmosphere of refined comfort.

The main living area is picture-perfect, with large plush sofas gathered around a roaring log fire. At the same time, the snow falls beyond grand windows that open up to reveal a spacious outdoor balcony with additional seating. To its rear, the dining area is a feast for the senses, where the aromas of freshly prepared delicacies fill the air. Dining at Chalet Reno is always a special occasion prepared by your private chef.

When it's time to rest, you'll find six beautifully appointed guest rooms spread out across the chalet. Choose from six beautifully appointed en-suite double bedrooms, each of which is an oasis of tranquillity, with soft bedding and comfortable mattresses that promises nights of restful slumber after a day on the slopes.

For relaxation and rejuvenation, the chalet offers a private wellness area in addition to its entertainment facilities. Slip into the soothing warmth of the sauna and feel your aches melt away, indulge in a pampering massage to soothe tired muscles, or take a dip into the indoor pool.

When it's time to enjoy some quality time together, gather around the big screen on plush recliners to watch your favourite movies and shows in style or seek solace in the cosy lounge, perfect for board games and socialising.
