Location & Local Information

Portes Du Soleil has one of the most spectacular skiing terrains in Europe and the fabulous ski slopes can easily be accessed from Morzine attracting visitors from all over the world.

Apartment Lisa is perfectly positioned to make the most of this extraordinary area. Portes Du Soleil is made up of 12 resorts that straddle France and Switzerland between Mont-Blanc and Lake Geneva. There are over 600km of slopes that provide a huge variety of runs suitable for all levels of skiers. With an abundance of winter sports to sample, including snowshoeing, Snowmobiling or husky-dog sledging, Morzine is a great option for families and larger groups.

Morzine has three main lift stations located in the centre of the village. Super Morzine takes you to the exhilarating slopes of Avoriaz, which has the highest skiing in the area. Avoriaz also has some of the best snowparks in the Alps and is home to Europe's first free-style park. The Pleney lift is a firm favourite with families and is also very popular with beginners and low-intermediate skiers because of the lovely long blue runs and open reds, which return to the village or provide access to the ski resort of Les Gets. Thrill seekers and adrenalin junkies head to The Nyon lift located at the North end of the valley. The lift accesses the Nyon-Chamossiere Sector at 2010m, which boasts two amazing runs as well as some challenging off-piste options.

Morzine is a fully functioning all-year-round resort. Offering fabulous scenery, stunning landscapes, and many paths to explore on foot or mountain bike makes the area a wonderful place to see throughout the year. There are many attractions to enjoy including Lake fishing at Lac Mines d'Or and Golf at the Morzine-Avoriaz & Les Gets golf courses.

Morzine is a truly charming and authentic village offering a wonderful selection of local restaurants, patisseries, shops and bars, however the mountains are the real star with stunning snowy pistes and in the warmer months, several fantastic hiking paths and mountain bike trails, considered by many to be the best in Europe.

The town of Morzine is easily accessible and is truly abuzz in the evenings. Michelin-acclaimed restaurants flock to this desired resort and there are plenty of bars to enjoy cocktails and beers.
