Location & Local Information

Morukuru Farm House is within the renowned Madikwe Game Reserve, one of South Africa's largest and most diverse game reserves. Located in the North West Province, this wildlife haven is home to the Big Five and various other fascinating species, making it a prime destination for safari enthusiasts. The reserve's diverse landscapes, ranging from open plains to dense bushveld, offer breathtaking views and an intimate experience with nature, allowing guests to immerse themselves in the wild beauty of the African bush.

The surrounding area is rich in both natural wonders and cultural heritage. As a malaria-free zone, Madikwe is perfect for family safaris, providing safe and accessible adventures for children and adults alike. Guests can enjoy guided game drives, bird watching, and immersive wildlife experiences, all while staying in the seclusion of Morukuru Farm House. The region's tranquil atmosphere makes it the ideal setting for those seeking both adventure and relaxation in a pristine, untouched environment.
