Location & Local Information

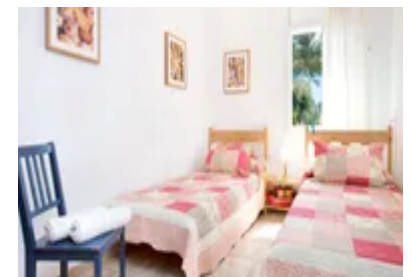

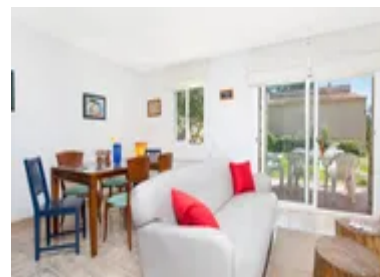

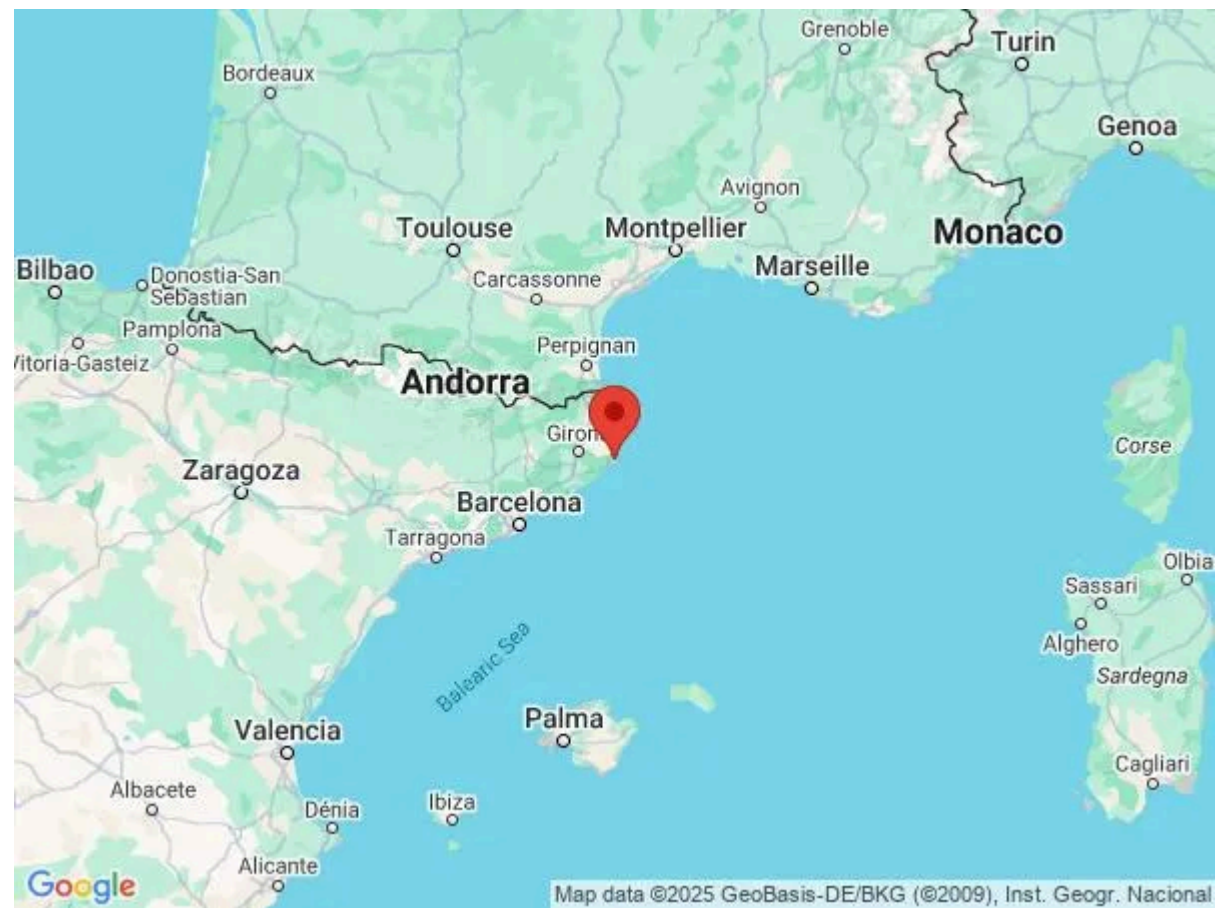

Casa Gelpi is in a quiet residential area, nestled in the gorgeous hills just outside the Muntanyes de Begur nature preserve. Perhaps one of the best features of Casa Gelpi is that it is just a short walk from the beautiful beach at Tamariu, an incredibly quiet spot on this popular coastline.

With no high rises or large hotels in sight, the shallow waters and sandy beach are perfect for lazy days at the seaside. Enjoy the relaxing scent of pine as the breeze carries the wonderful aroma in from the surrounding rugged hilltops, covered in rich green pine and tamarisk trees, you will truly feel at peace in this fantastic location. The town has some great amenities all within walking distance from the villa, a supermarket, several restaurants and bars as well as beach shops cover everything you may need to make your stay comfortable.

There are a series of walking tracks all along this amazing coastline, and keen hikers may enjoy the walk all the way to Lafranc. Upon arriving, why not treat yourself to a cool beer on the beachfront and appreciate a well-earned rest. Lafranc is another wonderful town well worth exploring, made famous by the likes of Salvador Dali, and this larger town has some fantastic restaurants from which you can enjoy another breath-taking view of the gorgeous Mediterranean.

There are a whole host of private tour operators in the area and for a good reason. Explore the coastline by boat and discover incredible rocky coves and pristine beaches only accessible from the sea. This makes for a spectacular day trip, and you can bring a picnic, or even do a little fishing on your way before finding your own private cove to enjoy lunch. There are also several diving guides, offering a range of trips for all different experience levels, there is no better way to explore the local sea life. If diving is not for you but if you would still love to explore the sea life, pick up a snorkel from a local shop to explore the beach shallows, you will still find an abundance of life!
