Location & Local Information

Villa Iglesias stands in a prestigious hillside location in the Golf Valley La Quinta. This stunning villa is situated in a secure close gated community with just a handful of other quality villas. Surrounded by immaculate, landscaped golf courses, this is a wonderful, peaceful location that is only 15 minutes away from Puertos Banus and the fantastic Costa del Sol beaches. Having the 5-star Hotel Westin La Quinta just two minutes away is an added bonus. It offers excellent sporting and leisure facilities as well as gastronomic feasts.

Puerto Banus was designed and built-in 1970 by local property developer Jose Banus as a luxury marina and shopping complex. The shops and restaurants reflect the expensive lifestyle of its visitors. If you enjoy people watching, you will never be short of popstars or reality TV stars driving up in their Ferraris during the summer months. The marina is a sight to see, brimming with dazzling yachts. Sala Beach Club and Ocean Club Marbella are two of Puerto Banus' luxury beach clubs where you can indulge in champagne and gourmet lunches; all served by attentive staff. Within Ocean Club Marbella, there is a range of exclusive shops, a wellness spa and massage, a swimming pool, a restaurant, 4 bars and a chill-out zone.

Marbella is a luxury beach destination boasting Michelin-starred restaurants, manicured, challenging golf courses, marinas bustling with high-end yachts, chic, designer boutiques, glitzy entertainment and never-ending golden sandy beaches. Plaza de Los Naranjos, the old part of Marbella, is beguiling with Arabic characteristics and overflowing balconies adorned with vibrant flowers. The narrow streets surrounding the beautiful plazas are full of chic bars and restaurants and charming shops selling souvenirs, olive oil, local pottery and lace. Plaza de la Iglesia is very beautiful and often hosts vibrant markets and concerts.

For a complete change, you may decide to drive into the hills and visit Benahavis. The town offers many high-class restaurants scattered along the narrow, winding streets. It is very picturesque and is worth the drive through the Rio Guadalmina gorge up into the hills.

Further along the coast, you could visit Gibraltar, famous for its Palladian architecture and camera-hogging Barbary Macaques. The Pillars of Hercules with fantastic views of North Africa's Morocco, the huge caverns of St Michael's Cave, the Skywalk lookout at the top of the rock and the Barbary Macaque apes are all Instagram-worthy photo opportunities.

In the opposite direction, Malaga is a very popular resort with a historic centre, handsome streets, a vibrant gastronomic scene, fine museums, boutique shops and lively streets, bustling with cafes and tapas bars. As the birthplace of Pablo Picasso, one of Malaga's main attractions is the museum dedicated to him, which is housed within the beautifully restored Buenavista Palace. Malaga is a foodie destination, with the Mercado Central de Atarazanas being very popular. This indoor farmers market is bursting with brilliant colours and smells of fresh fruits and vegetables and local specialities such as almonds, anchovies and olives. The striking, modern Port of Malaga is lined with upmarket restaurants and bars, and a visit to the majestic Malaga Cathedral is a must.
