Location & Local Information

Villa Cambados is located north west of Pontevedra in the heart of the Riax Baixes south coast countryside. It is just a 15-minute drive to the beach, the buzzy town of Cambados and the very popular town of Pontevedra and only slightly further to the coastal delight of Sanxenxo.

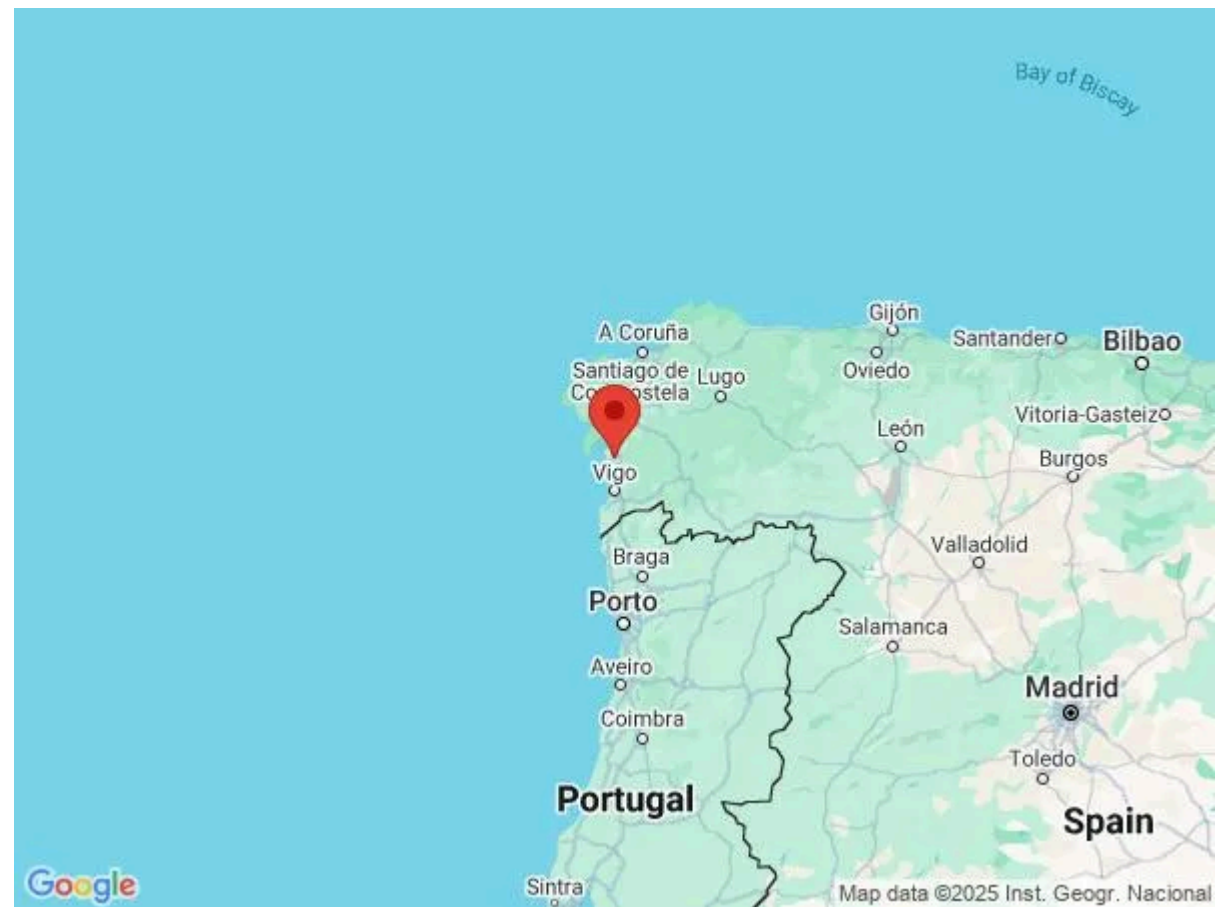

One of the closest beaches is Playa de la Lanzada, one of Galicia's best. With over 3km of glistening white sand backed by stunning dunes, it is a total wonder. The water is very blue and clear and the sunsets are to die for! Close by, Playa Area das Pipas enjoys delightful rocks and tide pools. It is lined with fragrant pine trees and is very picturesque.

Pontevedra is a beautiful, well-preserved old town. Brimming with beautiful buildings, interlocking narrow lanes and picturesque plazas, it combines history, culture and style. It is a great place to shop, dine and sightsee. The town's Gothic Santa Maria la Mayor Basilica is amazing.

Cambados, the capital of the albarino wine country, is actually a fusion of three medieval villages, Fefinans at the north end of town, Cambados proper in the middle and the fishing quarter of Santo Tome in the south. It is full of ancient streets lined with beautiful stone architecture and sprinkled with inviting taverns and restaurants.

Sanxenxo is often called the 'Marbella of Galicia' and boasts a busy leisure port, a long attractive waterfront and lots of tourist amenities and restaurants. You will mostly find Spanish holidaymakers in Sanxenxo.

A popular place to visit is Ermita de San Sebastian on the Isla de la Toja. It is a dreamy place with millions of scallop shells adorning its beautiful little church. You may also want to look at the famous Camino de Santiago pilgrimage trail and Santiago de Compostela. This interesting city enjoys magnificent stone architecture and a famous cathedral. The skirl of bagpipes might make you think you are in Scotland. The town's charming restaurants and bars specialise in fine delicious Galician seafood and local wines.
