Location & Local Information

Located within the rural Pontevedra, Villa Estrada enjoys a secluded and tranquil location, while the bustling town of A Estrada is a mere five-minute drive away. This villa is slightly secluded, so when you need to pop to the shops or go out for a meal, A Estrada is the place to be! Located about 25 miles away from Santiago de Compostela, A Estrada has historical landmarks, lovely cafes, family-friendly restaurants and child-friendly activities. The nearest airport is Santiago de Compostela Airport, 40 miles from Villa Estrada.

Guests can take a day trip to the Galician capital of Santiago de Compostela and stop off on the way at The Fervenza do Toxa, one of the highest waterfalls in Spain. Surrounded by a lush forest of oak, chestnut, birch and other native species that form a unique landscape that captivates the visitor. The Historic Centre of Santiago de Compostela has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, which considers it one of the most beautiful urban areas in the world. There are many reasons to visit this city: history, nature, leisure, and gastronomy are some of the things that tourists can enjoy. Visit the famous cathedral, Saint Sign of Santiago, and get lost in the narrow streets and squares that make up its historic quarter with centuries of history and majestic buildings, many of them from medieval times.

Guests can also take a trip to El Pazo de Oca, one of the most beautiful gardens in the world. Other must-see cities like Vilanova de Cerveira and Caminha are close by, too. You could also make tracks for Vigo, Porto or Tui. The latter is a Romanesque and gothic village that is steeped in history. Take in the cathedral and churches there before heading to the mountain of Aloia nearby. If you climb to the top, you'll be rewarded with views of the Vigo estuary and the Louro valley below.

Galicia is a hidden gem and still remains largely off the typical tourist trail, making it an ideal destination for an authentic Spanish retreat.
