Location & Local Information

Despite its current reputation for all-night parties, hedonism and elegance, Ibiza was first popularised by a hippy community, and in amongst the trendy clubs and lively beaches, their presence is still felt in the many markets they established throughout the years.

The immense popularity of the island ensures you'll never be far from anything you need – be that a supermarket, restaurant or an all-night dance floor! As the clubbing capital of the world, you can guarantee a good night out at any of Ibiza's famous clubs including Pacha, Amnesia and the world's biggest club: Privilege.

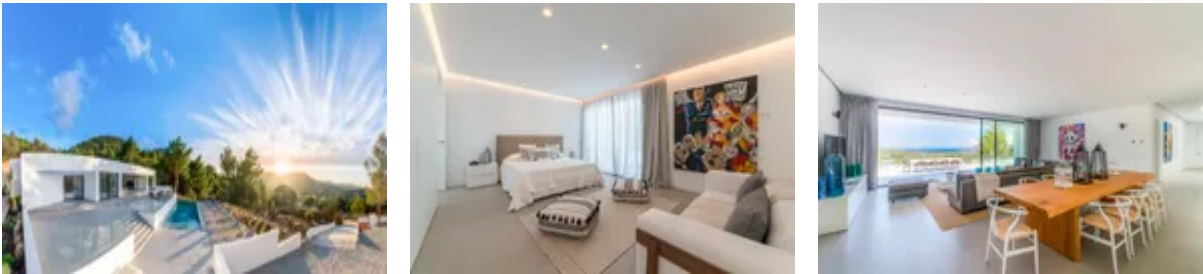

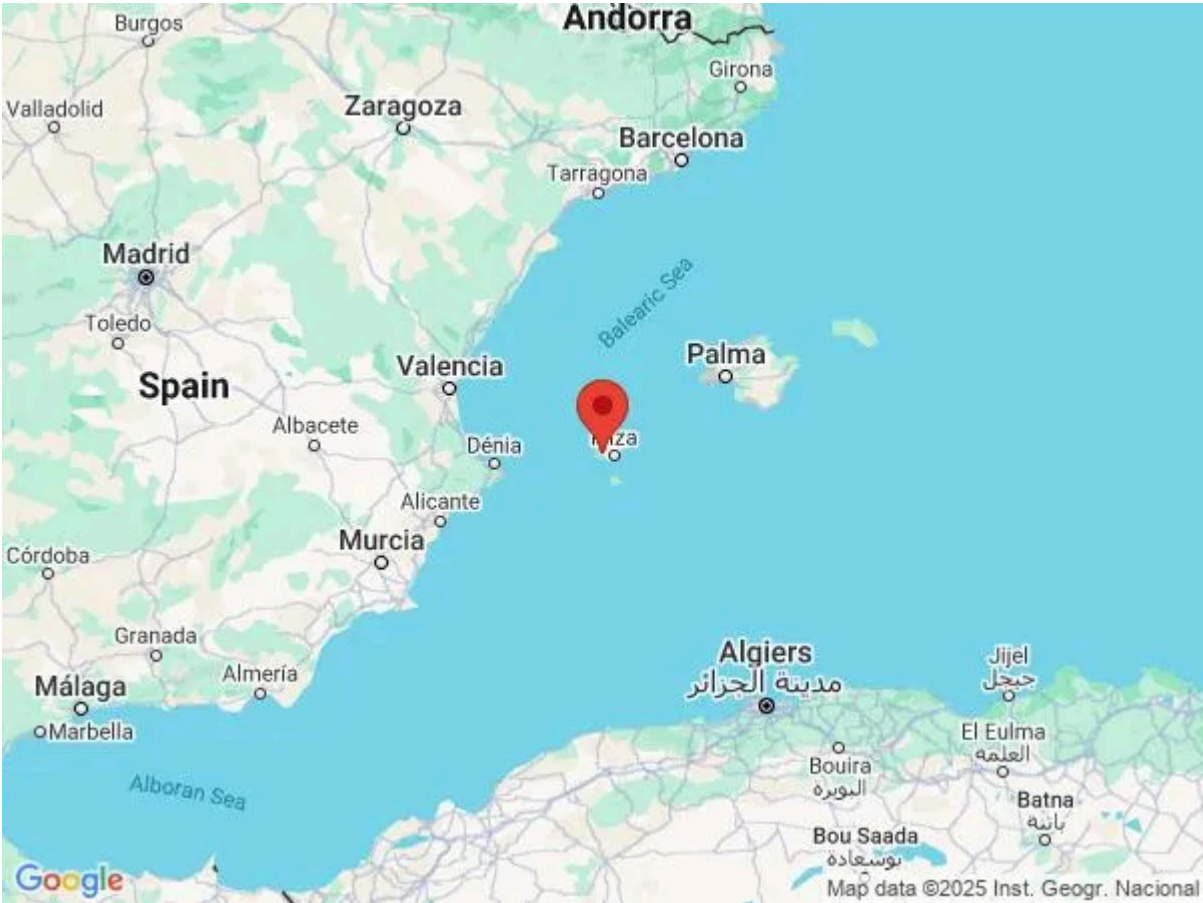

And for those not looking to party every night, Ibiza is ideal for a romantic weekend and even an active family holiday – with amazing cycling, kayaking, hiking, and many more activities on offer! These are particularly good during the winter when the island calms down a little but retains its fabulous weather.

Of course, no Spanish island would be complete without a fine array of wine and seafood on offer, and Ibiza is no different, with a thriving culinary scene.

Ibiza has earnt its status as a perfect holiday destination, thanks to its shimmering turquoise waters, lagoons, coves, and of course, endless beaches that stretch to the horizon, as well as its less documented charming countryside and vibrant communities dotted across the little island.

What we love

- The spacious and airy open plan living area feels truly luxurious, with only the finest fittings and furniture in place
- With such a privileged position on the hill with views of the luscious countryside, seaside town and the beautiful blue sea itself, you might never tire of simply staring into the distance!
- The 20m infinity pool is perfect for an afternoon dip amid the hazy sunshine, allowing you to cool off in between sunning yourself!

What you should know...

- Ibiza's reputation for partying is well-earned, and it gets particularly busy in August! If you'd rather a quieter trip, try to avoid the summer rush!
- Don't forget the sacred Spanish siesta – be sure to plan around it!
- The villa is located on the main road EI-700 and is elevated but during the busy months there is traffic noise.
