Location & Local Information

The villa is located between Santa Eulalia and Cala Llonga, two of the popular urbanizations on the island. The villa itself is away from some of the busier spots of the party island. However, it's just 14 km from Ibiza town and 20km from the airport so although you feel a million miles away, guests are still close to the touristy hot spots should they wish to visit.

The villa is located close to one of the hidden gems of Ibiza's coastline. The closest beach is Cala Llonga, less than a 10-minute drive away from the villa's front door. Offering sandy shores and a few bustling restaurants, this is an easy place to enjoy the sunshine without travelling too far. Cala Olivera is only a short drive away as well and is a quiet, secluded and unspoilt cove as it has been kept somewhat a secret by the local residents. The beach itself is a natural cove with the most beautiful views. If you love to snorkel and dive, this is the perfect spot to indulge thanks to the crystal-clear waters.

There are larger but just as beautiful beaches close by. Cala Llentrisca is a small fishing cove hidden under the cliffs of Es Cubells; Cala Carbo is one of Ibiza's most private little beaches; Vadella is home to water sports and plenty of beach bars; Cala Moli has its own beach club and Cala Tarida is the longest and widest beach on the west coast of Ibiza.

Ibiza town offers guests fabulous nightlife, with world-class restaurants and trendy bars lining the cobbled streets. The Old Town is home to chic boutiques and there are art galleries and museums to visit too. There's pretty much something for everyone.

For golf lovers, there is a beautiful course just a little inland called Golf Ibiza.
