

Casa de las Palmas

Region: Mallorca Sleeps: 6

Overview

This beautifully furnished modern villa in the calm of the Mallorcan countryside offers everything you need for a tranquil stay on this fabulous Spanish island. Perfect for groups of friends or families, this light and airy property has all the facilities to allow you to enjoy the sun, sea and enticing culture of Mallorca without a care in the world.

Incredible open plan living includes a fully equipped kitchen, living room and dining area, meeting all your needs and more, with a perfect space for relaxing on a hazy evening. The living space is bathed in sun through the French doors which open on to astonishing balcony views to create the perfect morning greeting. And the range of indoor and outdoor dining options ensures that whether you prefer to sit in the comfort of the villa, dine al fresco by the pool (even using the fabulous brick built barbeque) or choose to indulge in Spain's finest dishes of tapas at one of the local restaurants, all your desires can be satisfied by this luxury property which is walking distance from one of the many small towns on the island. This places bars, restaurants and supermarkets at your fingertips, with golf and beach options just a 10 minute drive away.

Each bedroom is perfectly crafted to ensure a sense of calm and tranquillity, with French doors inviting the warmth and sound of nature inside the rooms themselves, while tasteful ensembles accompany every room.

Stylish and sophisticated, this little piece of luxury tucked away in the hills feels totally secluded and private, allowing you to lounge on the lawn in the glorious Spanish sun and cool off in your very own private pool without a thought for the world outside.
