The main square is filled with open-air restaurants and cafes, serving up local delicacies, including fresh seafood and squid-ink risotto, as well as other European classics. Behind the church, in the shade, the daily open-air market sells fresh seasonal fruit and vegetables, so you choose your own ingredients to take back to the villa and prepare delicious family meals based on some of the classics you have tried in the restaurants. From the harbour you can take fun day trips to the nearby islands, visiting the famous beaches such as Jelsa on Hvar and Zlatni Rat beach in Bol on Brac.

The stunning beaches dotted along the whole Makarska Riviera are what brings tourist back year on year. Mount Biokovo not only provides a breath-taking back drop, but also shelters the beaches, creating a mild climate, perfect for long beach days soaking in the sun.
