What we love

- This villa's beautiful terrace offers lots of privacy and great amenities including a pool and barbecue
- The open-fronted lounge area makes it easy to weave in and out as you please, and has plenty of comfy seating areas
- Impressive bedrooms offer plenty of space, large beds and often direct access to the poolside
- You have a wide variety of facilities at the resort, with this villa super-close to the beach and the wonderful Altos de Chavon village

What you should know...

- If you think you cant see the kids, just check the vast garden...keep an eye on the little ones!
- Make sure that mosquito repellent, sunglasses, sunscreen and light layers of clothing that can cover you make the packing list! White looks great on the golf course anyway!
- When getting around the island we'd recommend car. Rental cars are available or you can opt for a taxi or bus. Taxi's can be incredibly expensive and you'll need to be prepared to haggle. Buses tend to stop short of nine o'clock at night which may make you feel as though you don't have enough time for a night out. With a rental, freedom is yours
