Overview

Villa Indiana is one of a kind, fitted out with elegant furnishings alongside playful touches throughout the property that will certainly impress any younger members of your group. Boasting its own games room, avatar playroom, indoor basketball court and a Mickey Mouse shaped pool, the entertainment of Orlando is evident throughout, hinting to the magic to come at Florida's world-famous theme parks!

As you open the front door, the villa greets you with a fabulous monochrome living area. Bright and spacious, this extravagant, open-plan room has been designed for large groups, perfect for gathering together, chatting and laughing without the worry of life's day to day distractions. Although vast, the large sofas, imposing kitchen island and elegant dining table make the room feel more intimate, sectioning off the different living areas and allowing you each to find your own nook. Just imagine kids curled on the sofas while adults cook in the kitchen and sip wine around the breakfast bar.

With five king-size bedrooms and two kids themed rooms, the villa happily sleeps eighteen guests. All of the double rooms offer their own en-suites, with the master bedroom featuring the best bathroom; equipped with an elegant free-standing tub and a huge double shower! The two kids' rooms are completely unique, the first designed as a pirate's ship and the second with a pink fashion theme that kids are sure to love.

After a busy day out in Orlando, you might come home simply wanting to rest, desiring a quick dinner and a movie before bed. The villa's home theatre is designed for just this. Boasting eight leather recliners and a large projection screen, it feels like you have your own private cinema, with your favourite films lighting up in front of you – just make sure you remember to buy popcorn!

Outside, Villa Indiana offers yet more living space, this time out under the bright Florida sun. The private pool is formed in a Mickey Mouse shape with two spa's acting as the ears, where you can chill and relax watching the day slip by! Bordered by sun loungers and with plenty of space to spread out, the space is perfect for relaxing as a family, enjoying some quiet time after the bustling environment of the theme parks.

What you should know...

- You can pre-purchase tickets to a lot of the surrounding theme parks, ideal for avoiding long queues, especially in peak season
- This villa does not include use of the Resort's water park
- We would recommend heating the pool from November until April as the temperatures are a little cooler - this is an additional cost
