

Villa Fa Ying

Region: Krabi Sleeps: 7

Overview

Villa Fa Ying is a stunning blend of light-filled contemporary architecture and traditional Thai flavour, just five minutes stroll from the beautiful Pharang Beach, nestled in a discreet corner of a wider resort with the dramatic limestone cliffs as a spectacular backdrop.

Executed with stylistic panache, this home comprises of separate pavilions spread across elegant courtyard spaces for separate-yet-together living spaces and a classical indoor-outdoor flow that is central to the Thai way of life. Set within an exquisitely discreet resort environment, together with fine dining (European or Asian), pampering spa and planned excursions on-site as well as dedicated butler service, guests can relax in the knowledge that every detail is taken care of, from Kids Club or babysitting services to dietary preferences or sumptuous bespoke spa treatments.

Villa Fa Ying is a vibrant home, brimming with natural daylight and crafted with local, and natural raw materials, including timber, stone, marble and polished teak, finessed to an impeccable standard, offering every contemporary comfort along with authenticity (flat-screen satellite television, Wi-Fi.) This home blends the best of a traditional home given a luxury uplift, with a designer's touch of interiors flair.

Surrounded by luscious coconut palms and tropical foliage, this home is set in a tranquil haven; an oasis of style, class, quality and personal service, underpinned by quintessential Thai warmth and hospitality.

The airy interiors blend ethnic fabrics, artefacts, plush fabrics, crisp linens and glossy timbers, in well-proportioned spaces. A chic monochrome palette along with muted, earthy tones for a sophisticated aura of calm and zen.

The outdoors and indoors blend seamlessly, with sedate veranda furnishing and vibrant plant life, elegant al fresco dining balcony and chic light-filled internal spaces, setting the scene for lively group time.

Wicker, bamboo and latticework timber offer a local feel, while the bedrooms offer sumptuously artisanal touches along with glamorous fabrics and textures, within a gracious ambience of understated luxury. Three bedrooms offer serene havens from the bustle of local life, offering guests a truly restorative stay in this tranquil idyll.

Villa Fa Ying offers all the ingredients of a superior home-away-from-home: elegance, connection to natural surroundings and local culture, quality, individualism and style - to create something rather special when on a memory-making trip in Krabi Province.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in a golden spot between Phang Nga and Trang, Krabi province features stunning scenery both inland and at sea. With over 150 islands off its 150km coastline, a dense jungle-covered interior, awe-inspiring limestone cliffs, majestic caves, waterfalls and exotic wildlife, nature and water lovers will find themselves in a tropical paradise.

Villa Fa Ying is just a five-minute stroll to the gorgeous Phraang Beach, which features 450m of sugar-white sand, clear waters, two small islands (Koh Rang Nok and Nai), offshore coral reef and mysterious caves, set against the backdrop of striking limestone cliffs, connected to Railay Beach, which is known as being the region’s centre for rock climbing.

Watersports conditions are superb in the region, with everything from surfing to scuba diving, snorkelling and sea kayaking.

Taking a private boat for a day of island-hopping makes for a magical excursion; James Bond fans will revel in a trip to “James Bond island,” (features in ‘The Man with the Golden Gun.’) The Phi Phi islands are considered the shimmering jewel in Krabi’s crown; the iconic 100m high limestone rocks are a must-see. Featuring in many films, their crisp-white beaches, sparkling turquoise waters and striking limestone rock formations are unforgettable.

Heading into downtown Krabi will reward visitors with a relaxed pace of life and taste of local culture, while Ao Nang is the local hotspot for nightlife; it has a buzzing scene with everything from live music in beachside shacks to fine dining.

Heading into a local market will offer visitors a bustling, vibrant taste of local culture; Krabi Town’s “Walking Street Market” is a colourful hotchpotch of everything from freshly-cooked food to stalls selling locally-made crafts and street entertainment.
