Overview

Imagine waking up each morning, ambling outside and sitting back on the terrace, sipping a hot coffee and gazing out to rippling water in the harbour. The only sounds are those of boats getting ready to set sail, water hitting the rocks and birds waking up to a new day, creating an entirely tranquil ambience. Villa Spoleto offers a fabulous waterfront location near to the town of Sutomišćica, with a beautiful terrace, large private pool and charming interiors.

The villa itself blends traditional Croatian styles with contemporary furnishings and facilities, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere that is easy to settle into. With four good-sized bedrooms and spacious open-plan living areas, there is ample space for eight guests, perfect for family holidays, or a friend's getaway in the sun.

Offering two twin rooms and two double rooms, the villa offers flexibility for most groups. With exposed stonework, low ceilings and large comfy beds, there is a rustic charm to each of the rooms that feels cosy and relaxing. Picture frame windows capture images of the sea, so as you draw open your curtains each morning, the blue azure is the first thing you see.

The ground floor of the villa is spread between the indoors and outdoors, with the intimate interiors complemented by bright open terraces. As you make your way inside, the main social space is open-plan, with its exposed stone walls and white washed wooden beams juxtaposed by sleek, modern furnishings. The room feels contemporary and modern, with a newly fitted kitchen, sophisticated dining table, neat white leather sofa and all the details immaculately finished to make the room feel smart and elegant. Double doors lead you out into the sunshine, so you can come and go as you please, making the most of this beautiful setting.

The large terrace encourages you to relax, creating a beautiful living space for you to enjoy both day and night. The glistening swimming pool lets you soak your muscles while taking in the views and chatting to your loved ones on the surrounding sun loungers. During the day, guests can bask in the sunshine, sipping cool glasses of wine on the terrace and staring out to sea, while in the evenings dining alfresco by candlelight and heading down to the down for a cocktail or two. Villa Spoleto has something for everyone, the perfect blend of comfort and indulgence.

Location & Local Information

Staying on one of Croatia's idyllic islands is a bucket list ticket for any traveller, and Ugljan is definitely a good choice! Located a short 25-minute boat journey across the Zadar Channel, you are just a stone throw from all the sites and natural wonders of the mainland, yet as you settle into island life, the hectic tourist cities feel a million miles away. Ugljan is a green, mountainous island carpeted with olive groves and dotted with small fishing ports. Villa Spoleto sits on the waterfront, near to the fishing town of Sutomišćica, just a short drive from the island's biggest town of Ugljan. While Sutomišćica is quiet and tranquil, perfect for relaxing family holidays, enjoying peace and privacy with your loved ones, Ugljan is slightly busier.

Ugljan is the oldest settlement on the island and contains remnants of the late Roman to early Christian era for you to explore, as well as the best of the islands' restaurants for you to try!

The fast-flowing Zadar Channel means this tranquil island has some of the cleanest seawater in Croatia, mix this with the beautiful sandy shores and luscious greenery, this location becomes an outdoor lovers dream. The eastern side of the island is busier with visitors and locals, while the western side sits mostly uninhabited, with steep, rugged cliffs dropping down into the sea.

The island has become particularly popular for Zadar residents, who come to enjoy the beaches, bike paths and hiking trails. If you enjoy outdoor adventures, then this is definitely the spot for you, with something for all abilities. You can easily rent a bike from Preko, less than a 10-minute drive from the villa. From here a coastal path runs from Preko to Kukljica, so you can cycle along, taking in the best of the views and stopping here and there to enjoy cold ice creams or refreshing drinks! Bike paths also run from Ugljan to the more remote western side of the island. You can pick up a map of the islands hiking trails from one of the tourist offices, heading out to explore on foot!
