Overview

Villa Koukla is a charming hillside retreat in Porto Koukla, offering an idyllic escape with breathtaking views over the Bay of Keri, Marathonisi Island, and the surrounding mountains. Just a five-minute drive from the lively resort of Laganas, the villa is perfectly placed for peace and privacy while still being close to traditional tavernas, seafront bars, and the quaint Limni Keri harbour.

The open-plan living area is full of character, with stone archways and a fireplace, leading into a well-equipped galley kitchen. Location & Local Information

Porto Koukla is a peaceful spot with a handful of mini-markets and a welcoming taverna within walking distance of your villa. Just 350m from Villa Koukla lies Kaminia Beach, a quiet and scenic stretch of sand. Nearby, the traditional village of Agios Sostis sits between Laganas and Keri, framed by mountains and fronted by a pretty beach. From here, you can hire a boat across to Marathonisi, or 'Turtle Island', famous for its wildlife and crystal waters.

Limni Keri harbour, only a 10-minute drive away, is another charming village. Nestled at the edge of Marathia Cape, it offers a small pebble beach shaded by pine trees and lined with tavernas. It is also an excellent starting point for exploring sea caves and beaches, while the mountain village of Keri, with its narrow streets and historic houses, feels timeless and serene.

For contrast, lively Laganas is within easy reach, known for its nightlife and long, turtle-protected sandy beach stretching to family-friendly Kalamaki, which offers a more relaxed vibe, warm shallow seas, and even a small waterpark. Vassilikos brings lush greenery, watersports, and well-serviced beaches, while Alykes retains authentic charm with its salt flats, churches, Byzantine art, and even horse-drawn carriages.
