Location & Local Information

A favourable location in the Greek Island of Rhodes, Kolymbia has become known as a fantastic family-friendly travel destination, whilst retaining its history and charm. The coastal village hosts numerous amenities, including local shops, supermarkets, bars and restaurants, with a selection of eateries serving traditional Greek food and providing entertainment.

Located in a quiet part of the countryside, Villa Kalyptos is just a 7-minute walk from the beautiful Kolymbia beach. A comfortable space, the beach is perfect for getting stuck into a good book on a sunbed or enjoying any of the fun water-sports that are available on the beach. Having been awarded the Blue Flag for its excellent water quality, you can cool down in the blue sea or take a boat trip from the harbour for a day out. With a bar that offers snacks and ice-cold drinks to enjoy, the beach offers fun for everyone and makes for the perfect day out. The beach boasts a magnificent view of the impressive Tsambika mountain, which is particularly beautiful at sunset.

If you fancy venturing slightly further afield, the picturesque Tsambika beach is just 2.1km away from Villa Kalyptos, with car parking available should you prefer to drive. Known as being one of the most beautiful beaches in Rhodes, it is popular but rarely crowded even in the height of summer. One of the warmest places on the island, it is a great place to lounge around under the sun, but do beware – the fine, white sand gets so warm during the hot months, sandals are necessary for walking across the beach! If you're looking for somewhere to eat and some entertainment, Tsambika beach boasts a variety of tavernas and bars, as well as a host of different water sports and beach games to partake in. If you enjoy exploring, 240km above the beach on a steep cliff stands the Tsambika Monastery, an idyllic location surrounded by pine trees. The chapel has a rich history and was known as a pilgrimage destination for women hoping to conceive.

The area offers the perfect balance of relaxation, culture, food and entertainment. There really is something for everyone!
