

Villa Rubino

Region: Sicily Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Rubino occupies a privileged position within a small residential area nestled in the countryside close to the city of Modica. You can drive to Modica in less than 15 minutes, with the coast and sandy beaches also conveniently reached.

This contemporary villa is like a breath of fresh air; with both the exterior and interior being white, bright and finished to an immaculate standard. The luxurious living space features two areas for relaxing. One is perfect for casual gatherings in front of the television, with the other a more formal area for reading and those quieter times.

Wherever you unwind or dine, you'll be rewarded with glorious views over either the main terrace with pool and out across the countryside, or over the lawned front garden. This area of garden is especially great for children to play games on and burn off some energy!

The relaxed feeling continues into each of the four bedrooms. One first-floor bedroom also has its own balcony terrace from where views over the lovely surrounding landscape can be enjoyed.

Also enjoy poolside-cocktails and al fresco meals on the main terrace, with the swimming pool being a beautiful focal point. The space is especially magical once evening falls, with lawn lamps illuminating it for a perfectly enchanting atmosphere.

Villa Rubino provides an ideal base for day trips to places such as the cultured city of Modica, which is only 15 minutes away by car. Its main attractions are the number of Baroque buildings, chocolate museums and a fascinating chocolate museum.

Other historic must-visits include the hilltop town of Ragusa and the city of Syracuse with its old town called Ortigia. The ancient Archaeological area of Cava d'Ispica is just a short drive away.

You can also be relaxing on sandy beaches and swimming in azure waters within 20 minutes, after driving to coastal spots like Pozzallo and Marina di Modica.

Location & Local Information

Villa Rubino enjoys an enviable position within the countryside surrounding the city of Modica; which is just a 15 minute drive. On a country road, amenities are even closer, with a few restaurants, bars and shops only five minutes away by car.

Known for its stunning Baroque architecture, the city of Modica is a great place for a day out. Enjoy historic sightseeing at the cathedrals of Duomo di San Pietro and Duomo di San Giorgio, as well as browsing the archaeological finds on show at the Museo Civico. Modica is also famous for chocolate, so be sure to visit its number of chocolate shops and the museum that tells the story of chocolate making in the city.

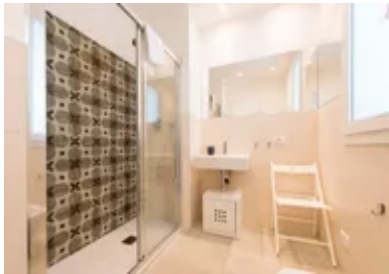

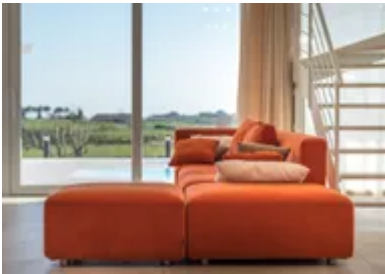

In a dramatic, rugged spot and full of atmosphere is the Archaeological area of Cava d'Ispica. Walk around this impressive site to discover ancient cave homes and burial sites that were carved into a mountain many thousands of years ago.

Another historic must-visit is the hilltop town of Ragusa. The old town is full of Baroque buildings to admire, with Giardino Ibleo gardens a lovely place to take a break and take in panoramic views over the valleys. Shoppers will also love the number of outlets in the town, with some top designer shops amongst them.

The coast is ljust minutes away by car, with some of the nicest beaches found at Marina di Modica and Pozzallo. Marina di Modica is great for those into watersports, with ideal conditions for surfing and windsurfing.
