Villa Vamos

Region: Kalyves Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Vamos is a dazzling, white-washed authentic Cretan home set across three stylish storeys, emanating simple and authentic charm, along with every contemporary comfort with a private pool and stylish outdoor living.

Standing majestically in its own grounds, with a pretty walled garden and wrought-iron gates, there are beautiful views to the sea against a backdrop of rugged hills and rolling countryside. Outdoor living is styled to perfection, with elegant dining sets, private nooks for a tranquil morning coffee and breezy balcony to enjoy the views of the sun softening over the bay with a glass of wine. The sleek terrace is offset by glistening private pool, framed with loungers and day beds with the shade of parasols to enjoy poolside restoration.

Tranquil, private and low-key, yet a short distance to the local amenities, this home ticks all the right boxes. All the contemporary comforts are in place, as well as a treadmill in one of the bedrooms for those who wish to sustain their fitness regime.

With floor-to-ceiling glass at every turn and large picture windows, this house is characterised by bright, light interiors while the bedrooms are chic, understated and serene, each with stylish touches and unique accents of colour. Open-plan living is finessed with top-grade fittings, natural timbers and pared-down luxury.

Villa Vamos is where simplicity meets authentic local style; where comfort meets Mediterranean living, with rural meets sedate island life, in a sumptuous spot, to escape the crowds.

Location & Local Information

Villa Vamos is nestled within walking distance to the traditional village of Vamos, the historical heart of the beautiful Apokoronas region of Chania, with views to both the sea and the rugged hills, it is in an ideal spot. It's a great spot for exploring the island.

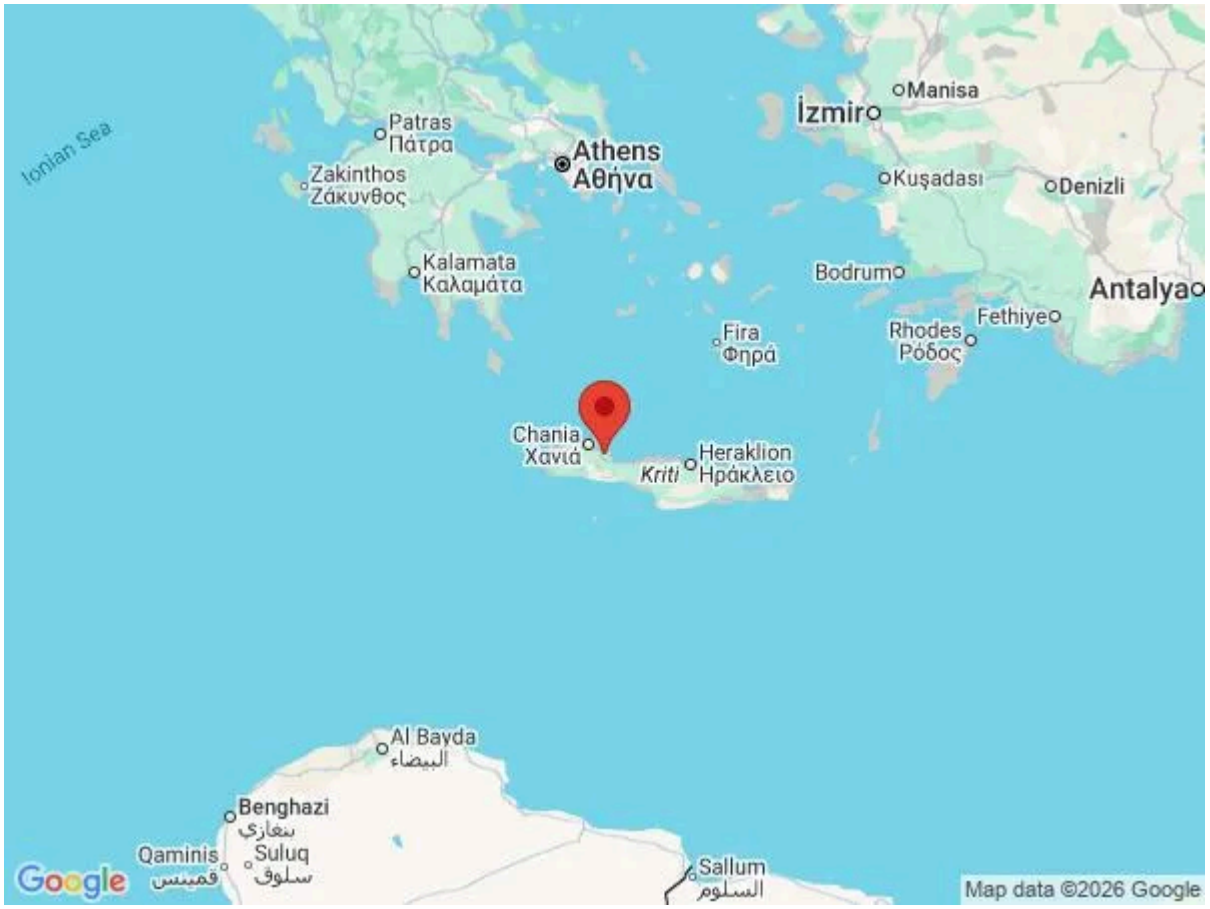

The pretty village, Vamos village is 25km from Chania, set in West Crete in the foothills of “The White Mountains.” Rethymno is only 35km distance, and the capital city of Crete Heraklion is 135km away. Vamos is in a semi-mountainous spot, 300m above sea level, yet only a few kilometres to the sea.

Known for its compelling architectural heritage, Vamos draws visitors for its preserved traditional stone road, sublime painted Chapels of Virgin Mary (dating to the 13th century), and Karidi Monastery which boasts a spectacular original olive press with 12 arches.

The beautiful Chania has a dash of Florence about it and a touch of the Venetian grandeur, the stunning harbour is a majestic site during the changing light of the day while the old port, narrow shopping streets and waterfront restaurants blend for a charming ambience. Mountain villages offer a window into the “inner Crete” with hiking trails and archaeological sites at every turn.

What we love

- Sleek, modern white-washed home which blends contemporary Mediterranean style with authentic local flavour
- Set on a beautiful hilltop spot, within walking distance to the prettily traditional village of Vamos, in the stunning Apokoronas region
- Sublime views with the Aegean to the north and the magnificent White Mountains to the south
- Well proportioned private pool and stylish outdoor living potential

What you should know...

- There are only two sunloungers, however there is plenty of seating space in the terrace
- Set across three storeys, with the master bedroom on the lower ground floor, and the other bedrooms are on the top floor
- The pool is unfenced, though there are plans to add a 1.1m glass balustrade
- To enjoy this beautiful region, its coast and pretty villages, a car is needed - there is ample space for two cars at the villa
- Due to the design the owner doesn't accept children younger than 12 years
