Location & Local Information

Once a hidden gem, Croatia has emerged as a sought-after destination thanks to its stunning natural beauty, rich history, and world-class gastronomy. From vibrant cities to pristine beaches and enchanting islands, it offers something for every traveller. Among its jewels is Brac – the largest island off the Dalmatian Coast – known for idyllic landscapes and its close proximity to Split.

A stay on Brac offers a perfect mix of tranquillity and adventure, with scenic surroundings and plenty to explore. Just under five kilometres from the villa lies Pučišća, a picturesque village famed for its stonemasonry heritage. Here, charming stone architecture lines the streets, with bars, shops and traditional restaurants offering a laid-back yet authentic experience. Be sure to sample local seafood and the island’s renowned lamb dishes.

For a beach day, head to Lovrecina Beach, just under nine kilometres away. Its sandy shores and crystal-clear waters are ideal for swimming, while shaded spots under pine and poplar trees offer respite from the sun. The beachside café is well-known for fresh fish and grilled meats. History lovers can explore the nearby ruins of the 5th-century St. Lawrence basilica for a deeper connection to the island’s storied past.
