Finca Gaucin

Region: Andalucia Sleeps: 34

Overview

Located in the whitewashed village of Gaucín, Finca Gaucin is an enchanting Andalusian estate where time seems to slow and views demand your full attention. It's the kind of place where your morning coffee grows cold as you stand at the window, gazing across cobbled lanes, rolling mountains and, on clear days, all the way to Gibraltar and the Rif Mountains of North Africa shimmering beyond the Mediterranean.

Once an old olive mill, the estate has been lovingly restored to preserve its historic soul while introducing understated elegance and modern comfort. Built in the style of the traditional pueblos blancos, its whitewashed walls are draped in bougainvillaea, while arched doorways, leafy courtyards and sun-soaked terraces create a setting that feels both romantic and serene. The atmosphere is one of total tranquillity, with peaceful pathways weaving the eight individual homes together into a private sanctuary in the heart of Andalucía.

Finca Gaucin welcomes up to thirty-four guests across eight beautifully styled, self-contained residences. Each home offers elegant, self-catering accommodation with a fully equipped kitchen, comfortable living and dining areas, and private outdoor spaces designed for soaking up the views. Interiors subtly reflect the region's Moorish heritage, blending characterful architectural details with relaxed, contemporary furnishings.

The collection ranges from charming one-bedroom retreats, ideal for couples seeking privacy, to spacious family homes with multiple bedrooms and generous living areas. Several properties feature private balconies or terraces for alfresco dining, while larger villas provide expansive lounges, open-plan entertaining spaces and panoramic terraces perfect for gathering together. The newly renovated La Frasquita, with direct access to the pool terrace, offers an added sense of seclusion while remaining connected to the estate.

At the heart of the property lies a large shared swimming pool set on an expansive terrace lined with sun loungers and parasols - the perfect spot to unwind beneath the Andalusian sun. Whether visiting as a large group or occupying individual residences, guests enjoy a seamless blend of privacy, luxury and breathtaking natural beauty at this truly seductive mountain retreat.

Location & Local Information

The Costa del Sol has been attracting visitors to its enriched country for years upon years. One of the most diverse and complete destinations across Europe, Spain boasts a deep and rich history, cuisine that is replicated across the globe and an array of different scenes and backdrops that will take your breath away!

Finca Buceite sits in the heart of the village of Gaucin, overlooking the surrounding countryside and down to the Mediterranean Sea. This humble village boasts superb views and historic towns and settings, the Moorish, Visigoth and Roman influence apparent throughout the region.

In and around Gaucín there is a selection of excellent restaurants offering typical Andalusian fare. In the centre of the town, visitors can sit and drink superb wine and or feast on tapas and paellas!

Step back in time with a walk up the hill to Castillo del Águila, the Roman fort. You can also check out the preserved ruins of the Arabic fortifications. You might also see some of the many varieties of eagles for which the Castle is named. Closer to home, the Fuente de Los Seis Caños (Fountain of the Six Spouts) built in 1628, is also well worth visiting.

Sunbathe and swim at the beaches of Sabinillas or Sotogrande- only 30 minutes away. Alternatively, get carried away kite-surfing in Tarifa - only one and a half hours away!
