Location & Local Information

Villa Eber is 1.4 km from the beautiful Elia Beach. The views of the beach from the villa are very inviting. The beach is gorgeous with silvery-white sand and wonderful views out to the neighbouring islands. Elia Beach is Mykonos' longest sweep of sand and is very popular with families. It is LGBT friendly with a rainbow flag at one end of the beach. You can catch a water taxi to visit other beautiful beaches on the south coast of the beach.

Also popular is Platys Gialos Beach with its watersports and many restaurants and bars. Paradise Beach and Super Paradise Beach are the famous party beaches with bars spilling out into the sand and international DJ's arriving to pound the beat late into the night.

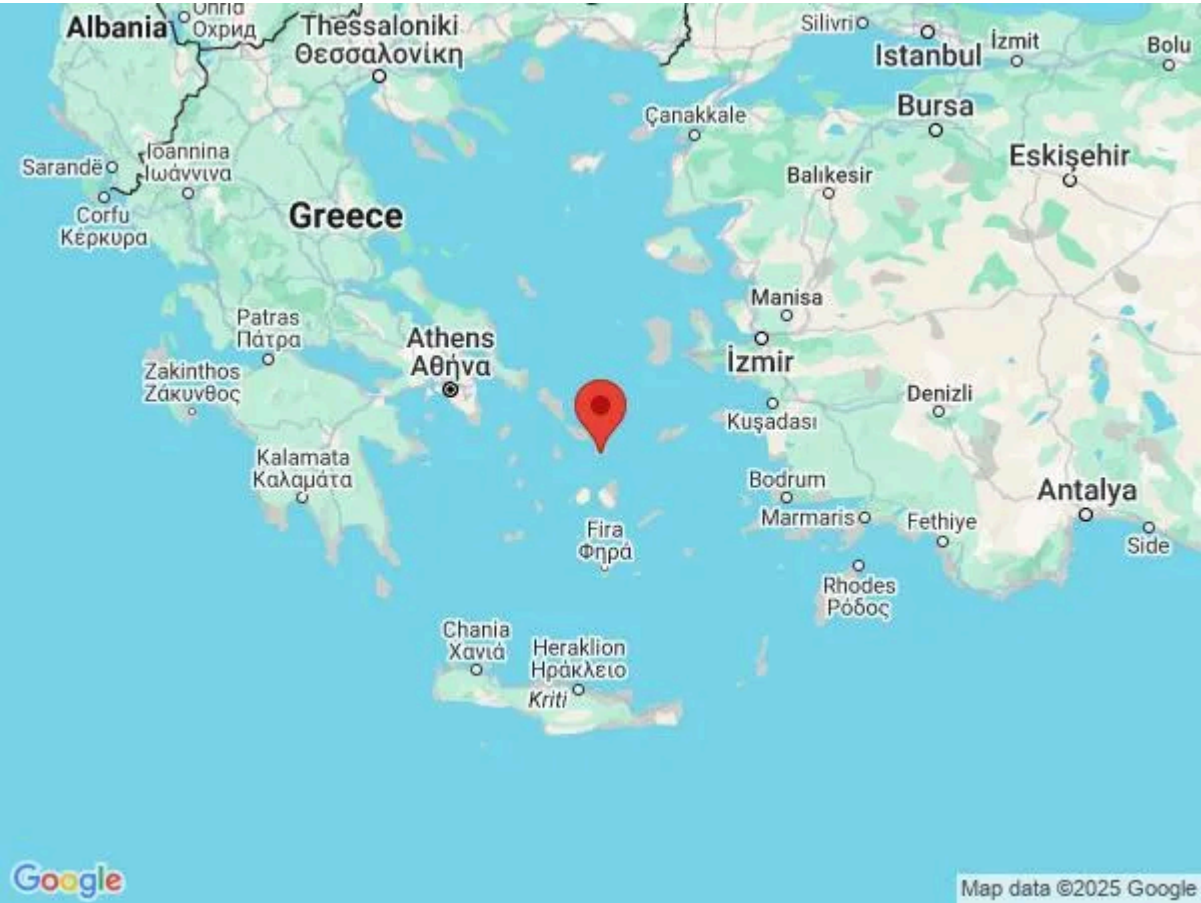

Mykonos is often referred to as the Ibiza of the Greek islands. It has been popular with A-list celebrities since the Fifties and Sixties when stars such as Brigitte Bardot and Jackie Onassis were enthralled by it. Mykonos is upmarket, stunningly beautiful and boasts chic beach clubs and bars but also whitewashed, glimmering Grecian jewels such as the Paraportiani Church which is featured widely on postcards. There are over 800 chapels and churches in Mykonos, but Paraportiani is certainly unique and special. There are stunning beaches, swanky restaurants, lush hillsides, azure waters and pretty, traditional villages all waiting to be explored.

The picturesque village of Ano Mera is 3.4 km from the villa. It is home to the restored 16th-century monastery Panagia Tourlaina which houses holy icons and paintings in a whitewashed complex. The Paleokastro Monastery is centuries old. Bakeries, cafes and tavernas spread out onto the narrow, cobbled streets with a rustic-chic vibe. There are also walking trails into the rocky landscape and down towards the beaches.

Tennis fans will be delighted with the Mykonos Tennis Club 5.7 km from the villa.
