

Chateau De Theleme

Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 8

Overview

The majestic family-owned Chateau de Theleme dates back to the 14th and 17th Centuries and can be found in the centre of the "Triangle of Prehistory." Only a short drive from numerous historic sites and landmarks - the Lascaux caves, chateaux such as the feudal fortress of Commarque and the medieval jewel of Sarlat. Guests will not be short on places to visit should they wish to explore the local area.

The Chateau de Theleme offers panoramic views of the entire valley right up to the Dordogne and boasts an impressive 20 hectares of grounds. The beautiful local countryside is one of the chateau's main selling points, but for those who prefer to relax, guests can enjoy lazy days in the sun on one of the several loungers around the chateau's large private pool. The rental also includes complimentary maid service (3 visits per week) to really help you unwind.

Interior & Grounds

The chateau is fully equipped with all modern comforts, yet still manages to keep its historic grandeur and rustic charm, with its stunning original antiques and period features. The chateau is encircled by 20 hectares of private grounds with forests, woods, meadows and hiking trails, and enjoys a private pool (12mx6m) with built-in, salt filtration, located on a neighbouring terrace. For racket sports enthusiasts, there are facilities for badminton and table tennis. There is plenty of parking and garden furniture for al fresco dining. The chateau can comfortably accommodate up to eight guests in its four bedrooms. Maid service and pool cleaning are also included.

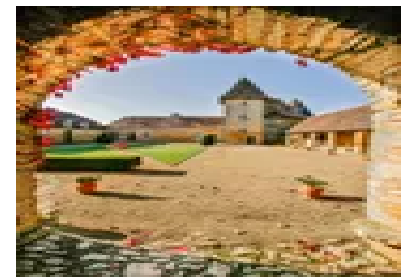

On the ground floor is the sizeable and fully functional kitchen with washing machine and dishwasher. The dining-room opens out onto a large outdoor terrace. The sitting room comes with an impressive fireplace and Satellite TV. Also on this floor are three double bedrooms and en suite bathrooms. On the first floor there is 1 double bedroom with a queen sized bed and an additional WC and a games room.

What we love

- The chateau is situated in the middle of some stunning countryside with exceptional views in every direction.
- There is a real sense of history at the chateau - you really do feel as though you are stepping back in time and living as the French aristocracy of the 17th century.
- The infinity pool is just fantastic!

What you should know...

- The stairs could be awkward for children or elderly/infirm.
- The Wi-Fi is only available on ground floor.
