Location & Local Information

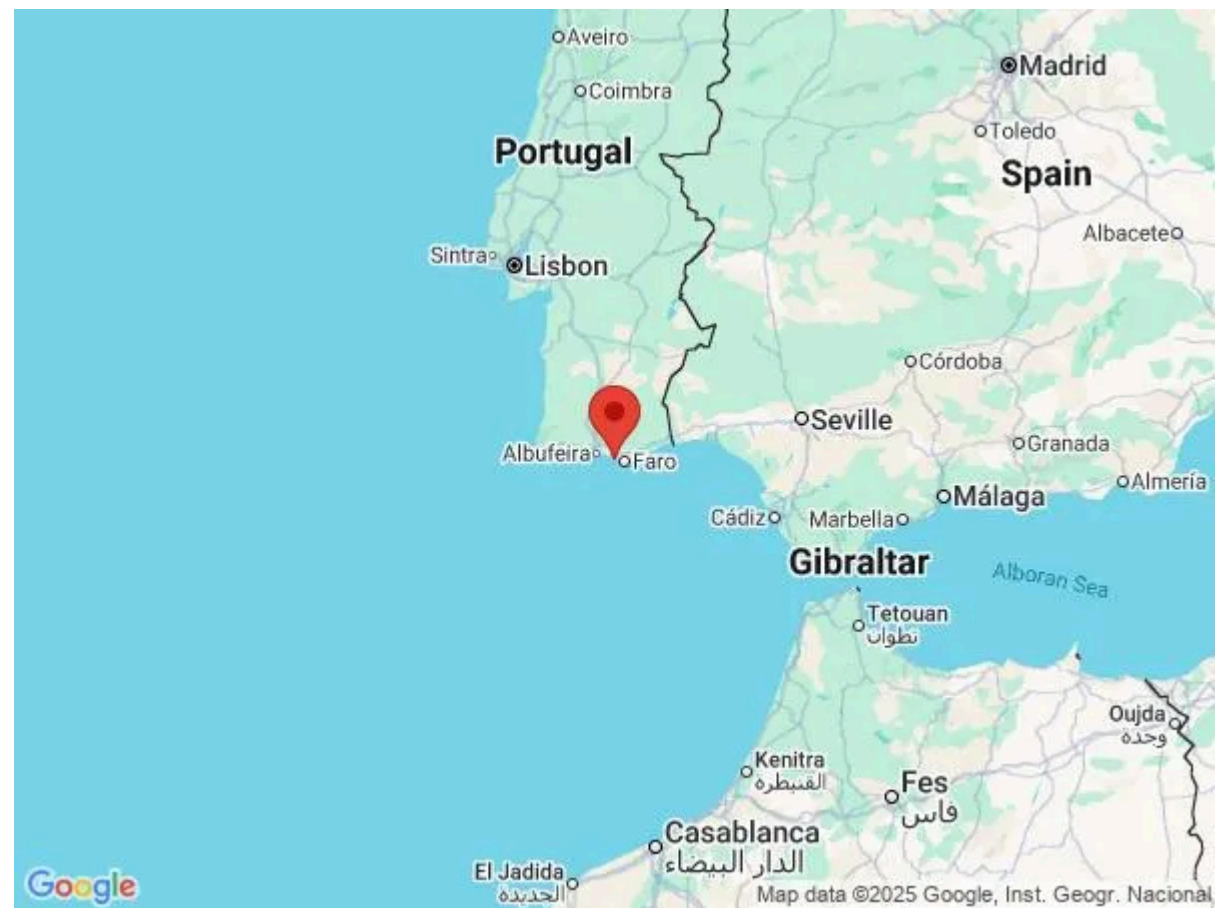

Whatever you are hoping for in a holiday can be achieved in this wonderful area of the Algarve. There are stunning beaches all along the coast with the local Praia do Garrao Nascente right on the doorstep. The 5km Vale do Lobo stretch of golden sand is backed by attractive terracotta cliffs. On windy days the shimmering turquoise sea will be dotted with surfers riding the waves to shore. Watersports galore including fun inflatable rides are available. The villa is also close to the delightful Quinta do Lago lagoon where the water is calmer and warmer, and there is a good range of waterside dining.

The atmospheric Portuguese market town of Loule is just a bit inland. The Arabic inspired market is brimming with regional handicraft stalls, local produce and freshly caught fish. Loule is totally unspoilt with beautiful, tree-lined plazas and a warren of alleyways barely altered since the Medieval times. The Gothic Igreja Matriz Church is absolutely stunning. You can enjoy some fabulous wine tasting at Loule. Quinta da Tor will offer you authentic Algarvian wines together with delicious olive oil and bread.

Golf fans will be delighted with the fantastic golf courses of the area. Very close by are the San Lorenzo Golf Course, the Quinta do Lago championship courses, the Vale do Lobo Ocean Golf Course and the Victoria, Pinhal, Old Course, Millenium and Laguna courses of Vilamoura. It is truly a golfers paradise!

Vilamoura is glitzy and glamorous with a captivating marina brimming with luxury yachts and lined with chic, gastronomic restaurants, bars and cafes. There are brilliant shopping opportunities. Vilamoura's casino offers dining and live entertainment as well as the gambling.

Almancil and the neighbouring village of Sao Lourenco are utterly charming and famous for the local pottery. The Sao Lourenco Church is one of the most attractive churches in the Algarve, decorated with characteristic blue tiles dating back to 1730 which tell the life story of its patron saint.
