Casa Coral

Region: Mallorca Sleeps: 6

Overview

Set in a prestigious residential enclave just minutes from Puerto Andratx, Casa Coral combines privacy, security and style in one of Mallorca's most desirable coastal locations. With 24-hour gated security and a panoramic outlook across the Mediterranean, it's an ideal choice for those seeking both peace and proximity. The villa sits on the edge of scenic countryside, offering direct access to coastal walks, cycling trails and hidden coves, while the sophisticated marina and vibrant city of Palma are both within easy reach.

The interiors strike a balance between elegance and ease, with whitewashed walls, polished wood floors and carefully curated furniture lending a refined yet relaxed atmosphere. Traditional wooden beams and soft linen fabrics add texture, while contemporary fittings and decorative lighting enhance the space. The open-plan layout works beautifully for groups or families with older children, offering sociable shared spaces and private corners. The main living and dining areas flow out to a fully equipped summer kitchen and covered dining terrace with expansive views. Outside, landscaped gardens planted with palms and flowering exotics surround the saltwater pool, which features a separate paddling section.

The location is hard to beat. You're close to the lively marina at Port d'Andratx, known for its restaurants and boutiques, while Cala Llamp's crystal-clear waters are ideal for swimming and snorkelling. For a day of culture, shopping and galleries, Palma is just a short drive away, making Casa Coral a well-placed base for exploring the island's best bits.

Location & Local Information

Port d'Andratx is a favourite among low-key A-listers and seasoned sailors, as it combines polished marina life with authentic Mallorcan charm. The harbour is home to a well-equipped yacht club with over 450 berths, and while sleek yachts line the docks, this is still very much a working fishing port. You'll find everything from fine dining spots tailored to the yachting crowd to casual cafés where you can sit and watch the daily comings and goings on the water. The local beaches are petite, but the area is rich in options - from larger sandy shores just a short drive away to boat trips, golf courses and luxury spas.

Just around the headland from Port d'Andratx, Cala Llamp is a rocky bay backed by dramatic cliffs and crystalline water. It's not your typical beach-day spot as there's no sand here, but it's ideal for swimming, snorkelling, and exploring rock pools. Families and confident swimmers will love the clarity and calmness of the water, while the views out to sea are impressive, especially at sunset.

Palma City is Mallorca's cosmopolitan heart; a compact capital that balances history, culture, and modern energy. The city is home to half the island's population, so it's vibrant year-round, not just in high season. Expect a mix of high-end shopping, atmospheric old-town streets, galleries, excellent dining, and buzzing nightlife. With the airport just 15 minutes away, it's a popular choice for a day trip or pre- or post-villa city stay.
