Location & Local Information

Port d'Andratx, located in southwestern Mallorca, is a picturesque fishing village just a short distance from the old town of Andratx. Known for its scenic harbor and as a popular destination for yachts and celebrities, it's often considered one of the Mediterranean's most beautiful harbors.

The lively harbour-front features outdoor cafes, bars, and restaurants ideal for enjoying seafood and people-watching. Nearby, the port offers small bathing areas, while the nearby resorts of Camp de Mar and Sant Elm provide sandy beaches backed by mountains for a more extensive beach experience. Deluxe Kerida also enjoys a prime location right on the coastline where guests can enjoy private, gated, sea access from the comfort of their villa.

The nearby town of Andratx, with its charming streets and traditional stone buildings, is worth a visit. Art enthusiasts should visit the Liedtke Museum to see distinctive works by Dieter W. Liedtke and enjoy impressive sea views. Meanwhile, those interested in a Mallorcan shopping experience can explore the town's charming shops, dine at local restaurants, and appreciate the stunning, scenic hillside views.
