Cala Jondal is a very beautiful beach, surrounded by fragrant pines and rocky Jurassic cliffs. It is very popular with boat owners, A-listers, celebrities and the super-rich and is definitely one of the more upmarket beaches in Ibiza. The white pebbly beach is built up with sandy parts by the beach clubs, and there is easy access into the water with little bridges and ramps. The restaurants are extremely popular so you should book, especially at weekends. There is also a massage area and the excellent Tropicana Ibiza beach club, as well as the VIP hangout, Blue Marlin.

It is only 15 minutes to the vibrant and buzzy Ibiza Town. The nightlife is legendary; the town is home to the world-famous Pacha nightclub. The stunning Marina Botafoch boasts numerous swanky restaurants and bars as well as fabulous boutique shopping. Ibiza Town attracts a very international crowd and is a great place for celebrity spotting in the summer. There are also some wonderful art galleries and museums. The ancient citadel of Dalt Vila is a history lesson in itself and boasts cathedrals, cobbled streets, chapels, churches, museums and flower-adorned balconies. You will still see some traces of the Moors and museum displays from various periods in the island's history, including Phoenician, Carthaginian and Roman.

Around the old port area, you will find cobbled lanes and pretty whitewashed houses. The area comes alive for the nightly hippy market where you can buy some souvenirs. The New Town of the city offers graceful plazas, including the boulevard of Vara de Rey and the Plaza del Parque. Ibiza Town is a shopper's paradise. You will find large chain shops and boutiques on and in between the boulevard of Avenida Bartolome Rosello and Vara de Rey, around the old port area and around the stylish and trendy marina. Small water taxis can take you from the port to the sandy beaches of Talamanca, Santa Eulalia and the hippy market at Es Cana. Close by is the island's longest beach Playa d'en Bossa, famous for its clubs, Ushuaia and Hi Ibiza, as well as its golden sand.
