There are various terraces offering shady spaces as well as sun-drenched ones, a fantastic 10m x 5m swimming pool and several outdoor lounge and dining areas. Deluxe day beds and loungers surround the pool, perfect spots to enjoy the rays and your holiday read. There is a shaded courtyard under a fragrant pine to chill and enjoy some cocktails or keep an eye on the built-in barbecue. You can choose between poolside dining under a pergola draped in colourful bougainvillaea or a cooler, covered space alongside soft sofa seating. The choice of entertainment space is endless.

The interior of this impressive, lavish villa is bright, colourful and brimming with traditional beamed wooden ceilings, terracotta tiles and rustic wood. You will immediately feel at home in such lovely, comfortable surroundings. The creamy white space of the main living area boasts plush sofa seating set around a fabulous winter fireplace. Two steps above, on the mezzanine level, a grand piano invites a play. The sunny, rustic kitchen is charming with its unique features and a large breakfast table. Sliding glass doors open to the pretty courtyard. From here you can access the laundry and the well-equipped gym offering yoga mats, weights, a cross trainer and a multi-station machine. The gym also houses three bicycles which guests are very welcome to use.

The villa's six dreamy bedrooms offer a calm and inviting ambience with their rustic, individually chosen accessories and crisp white linens. The master bedroom boasts a king-size bed, a charming ensuite bathroom with a bath and shower, a homely lounge area with a winter fireplace, beautiful views of the pool area and access to a terrace. Bedroom 2 is a cosy independent guest room with a double bed, an ensuite shower room and lovely views. Bedroom 3 also has a double bed and an ensuite shower room with direct access to a sunbathing roof terrace. Bedroom 4 is very spacious and has a

Location & Local Information

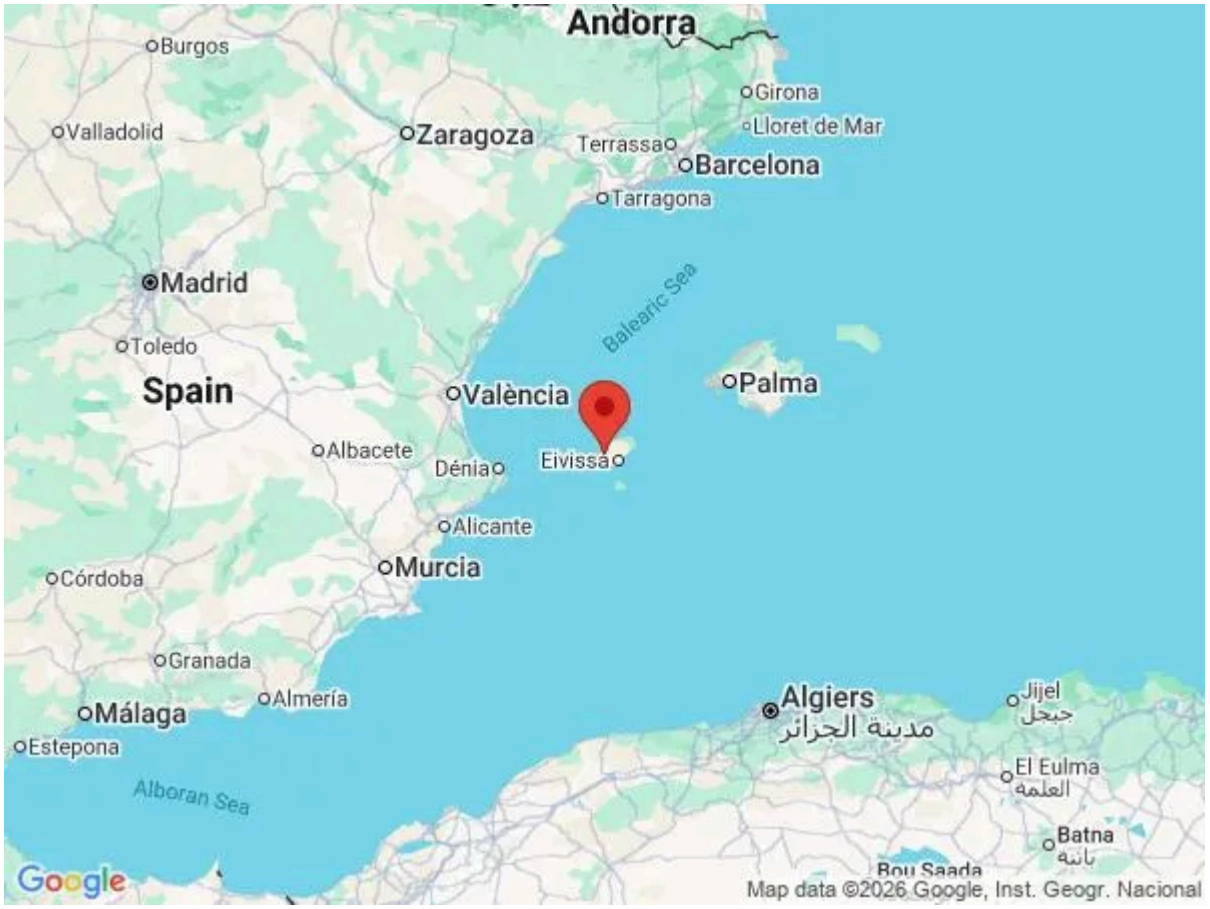

Port d'es Torrent is a lovely tranquil spot on Ibiza, a welcome reprieve from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. The sheltered bay cradles its 150m sweep of fine silvery sand and calm glistening water. With Blue Flag status, the beach offers sunbeds and parasols, beach bars and a lovely atmosphere.

Just 5 minutes away is its fast-living neighbour of San Antonio, a very lively resort with buzzing sunset bars, electric nightclubs, a vast range of water activities and a contagious buzzy atmosphere. The Sunset Strip is legendary where you can enjoy some cocktails, listening to the latest summer sounds and watch the vivid sun sink in a blaze of pinks, reds and oranges. Superclubs beckon the party revellers, and there is always something going on.

The beautiful Cala Bassa boasts 300m of gorgeous beach with wonderful amenities. The Cala Bassa Beach Club has four restaurants offering Ibizan, creative fusion, oriental and gourmet dishes, all shaded by ancient juniper trees and it has an exclusive Taittinger Lounge. DJ's play a mix of lounge, chill-out and house music and you can soak up the sun's rays on superb, comfortable loungers.

Cala Conta is formed of several stretches of sand. There are two regular beaches and one nudist one. Pretty Jurassic rocks or blissful dunes backdrop the beaches. The views are made of dreams towards the pretty islets and bobbing boats. You really must visit this beach at sunset. The beach is popular for swimming and snorkelling.

Ibiza is known for its excellent spas and holistic vibe. The Pure Seven Spa at 7Pines Kempinski Ibiza, between the beaches of Cala Conta and Cala Codolar, is a luxurious haven of wellbeing, open to all visitors. From its fantastic cliff-top location, the views of the island of Es Vedra are incredible. Pure Seven Spa is one of the top spas on the island.
