

Villa Nouvel

Region: Sicily   Sleeps: 6

Overview

Nestled among carob and olive trees, this remarkable property offers a quiet Sicilian retreat with nearby amenities. Enjoy the views of the sea while nursing a glass of the local Nero d'Avola and adjust to the slow pace of Italian country life.

The property can accommodate up to six guests with open-plan living areas, a swimming pool, and a terrace. Tastefully decorated throughout with customised finishes by local artisans, Villa Nouvel has been built to give guests breathtaking views of the sea and the nearby artificial lake at every opportunity. Its designer kitchen has been furnished with high-end appliances, making sure that your stay here will be as comfortable as possible. One end of the kitchen has full-size glass doors with views of the terrace, dining area, and the sea beyond.

The recently built property has been designed to be environmentally friendly and manages to merge natural materials – such as wood and cork – with manmade – cement and iron. The result is an exceptional structure which encompasses minimalism and style.

Outside, the nearby artificial lake feeds into the private swimming pool. The terraced grounds have dining spaces where you can enjoy al fresco eating while taking in the stunning views of the sea.

When you are after some supplies, the nearest village is just a couple of kilometres away. Here you will find a charming fishing village, with bars, restaurants and shops. There's also a 2km-long sandy beach to enjoy, where you can paddle, snorkel, hire a pedal boat and play beach volleyball. Beyond the beach is a pine forest, offering picnic tables and cooling shade in which to relax.

A little further inland, you will find Scicli (11km), a UNESCO-listed town in a scenic location. It is an ancient town, and here you can explore a baroque palace, a cave settlement only abandoned in the 1950s, and stroll along Via Mormina Penna, a good example of a late baroque street.

Location & Local Information

Villa Nouvel is neatly nestled in the Sicilian countryside, with views of carob and olive trees in the near distance. The sea is clearly visible from many aspects of the property, and the view is really so beautiful and wide that it's hard to photograph.

Just over 2km away is the nearest village, which offers shops, bars and restaurants, and also has 2km of beach for you to enjoy. Here, you can enjoy snorkelling and beach volleyball and hire a pedal boat to explore the area by water. Just behind the beach is a pine forest, which offers shady spots for picnics.

The city of Modica is an 18km drive away, and here you can explore the maze of streets lined with baroque buildings typical of the region. A UNESCO-listed city, it is known for its food, and in particular its chocolate! There's even a museum dedicated to the sweet treat. The city also has a number of impressive churches, including two baroque cathedrals. There are plenty of restaurants in the city that suit all budgets. A short trip away from Modica is the Cava d'Ispica, an archaeological park where you can find ancient cave dwellings and burial sites carved into the mountain.

One hour's drive away is Syracuse, a thriving town which is an exciting place to visit. The markets are bustling with activity, where traders sell spiky sea urchins and enormous aubergines. There are magnificent cathedrals and archaeological ruins to investigate too.

San Nicolo Cathedral is a stunning baroque-style building which dominates the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Noto. Here, you will find plenty of other architectural splendours, so much so that it is sometimes known as the capital of Baroque.

If you want to get out into nature, a trip to the Vendicari Reserve is recommended. As well as breathtaking views of the clear sea, there are long sandy beaches, observation huts to view the flamingos and herons, plus archaeological spots where you can see cave paintings and engravings.
