

Villa Attica

Region: Cyprus Sleeps: 6

Overview

White-washed walls, exquisite stonework and historical features make this brand-new stunning villa feel welcome in its tranquil setting. Isolated in the countryside with only the neighbouring Villa Argolid close-by, you can soak in the serene landscapes and culture of Cyprus, enjoying a moment of solitude with those closest to you. Built with owner's imagination engraved into the design, this unique property effortlessly combines the traditional architecture and colonial-influenced design with its enchanting backdrop, giving you a remarkable holiday setting.

The front door sets the scene for the romance and charm of the villa's interiors. Over a hundred years old, this handmade door was renovated to fit the property, speaking of the old whilst opening the way to the new. Inside, the living areas are spread over one floor, forming a 'U' shape around a beautiful central courtyard. At the centre of the villa is a luxury, domed Jacuzzi room, large enough for six and set up to melt away any lasting worries. A guest cloakroom with a shower and some gymnasium equipment is also located next to the Jacuzzi for your use.

The villa's main living area is open plan, adopting the same charm and romance as the rest of the property, yet with modern features blended in. The kitchen is equipped with everything you need to prepare delicious meals, with a dining table to seat everyone together and comfortable sofas so you can put your feet up. A stone hearth adds comfort even in the cooler months, so you can enjoy the peace and tranquillity of Villa Attica all year round.

There are three bedrooms spread over the ground floor, including a master suite just a few meters from the pool, a double bedroom and a twin bedroom. Each designed with its own luxury en-suite, every guest has their own privacy and space.

Outside, the bordering olive trees and fragrant jasmine add romance to the setting. The garden and swimming pool offer all the privacy you desire to enjoy long days outside, or afternoons sitting under the veranda with a cool glass of wine. There is an outdoor built-in dining area with a stone fireplace so you can spend long evenings outdoors. This charming villa is one of a kind, an idyllic setting for a holiday in Cyprus.

Note: Some of the photos may be of the neighbouring villa, Villa Argolid, the villas are of similar style and design.

Location & Local Information

For those looking for a small piece of solitude, a tranquil retreat away from the hustle and bustle, Villa Attica is the perfect place. This purpose-built villa combines traditional architecture with the beautiful surrounding landscapes, effortlessly sitting amongst the countryside to provide you with a luxury experience in rural Cyprus. To reach the villa there is a private road and a driveway leading off the Polis/Paphos road. The villa itself is set within a large plot of land, overlooking the beautiful countryside, including the hillside villages of Miliou and Yiouliou. Shaded with oleander and olive trees, the location feels relaxing the moment you arrive.

The nearby villages are set amid citrus orchards, and you can enjoy the natural scents as you wander around. Villa Attica is located in a traditional Cypriot hamlet on a hillside just 10km from Polis and 15km from Paphos Town. For general amenities, you will find a supermarket a short drive away in Polis and several local tavernas within a ten-minute drive. The closest airport is in Paphos, 25km away from the villa, so once you land you are almost there, and you can instantly relax.

Cyprus becomes more and more popular every season, famed for its 300 days of sunshine each year. The largest island in the Mediterranean, it sits at the crossroads of three continents creating a blend of cultures that make it truly unique. The cultural heritage of the island is said to be the most important living treasure of its people and is something to be respected.

From its beautiful beaches to its picturesque mountain peaks and vineyards, everything about this island is a charm to visit, with seemingly endless things to see and do. The closest beach to the villa is Latchi, 13km away. The beaches offer golden sandy shores and crystal-clear water, with generally safe swimming for visitors of all ages and swimming abilities. You can scuba dive and snorkel exploring beneath the sea's surface. For those who prefer the land, the citrus groves, olive trees and vineyards are a must-visit, whilst the old towns boast wonderful examples of Venetian-era architecture for you to explore.
