Location & Local Information

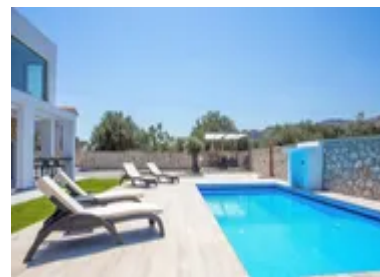

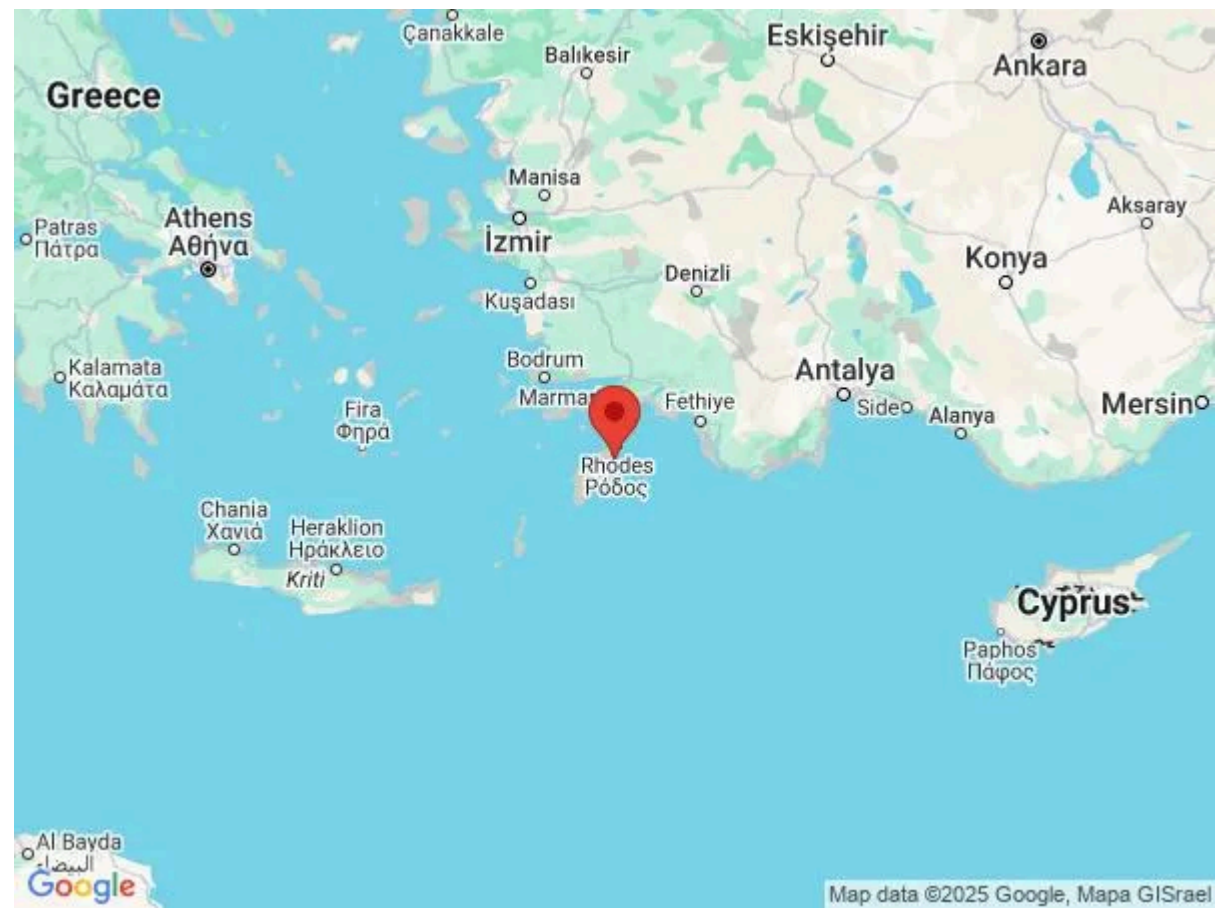

This fabulously stylish villa is located in one of the most spectacular locations on the Greek island of Rhodes.

If it's the beach-bars and nightlife you're after, just a short drive away is the incredible beach of Faliraki - all 5 kilometres of it! The huge crowds that gather here are well justified, with tons on offer to all kinds of holidaymakers and locals alike all flocking for its laid-back Mediterranean vibes and famous entertainment!

So come for a dip or a peaceful swim in the sunshine, and stay for the cafes, bars, restaurants and even clubs that stretch along its golden sands! Truly, there's something for everyone in this incredible spot on the dazzling eastern coast of Rhodes! It's not just what's on the land that counts though - with a fantastic water sports scene here, too! So perfect your surfing skills, or try your hand at sea kayaking - there's tons to try!

Or, if you're after a little more culture, the old monastery of the Prophet Amos is tucked on the hilltop just outside Faliraki, and only a short drive inland is the Sarantapichos archaeological site, part of an ancient acropolis although it's history is unsure! The town also offers supermarkets, pharmacies, and car rentals so you won't need to travel far to find anything you need!

To the north, meanwhile, with both its Medieval Old Town and its totally different new town, Rhodes Town is a unique, welcoming and enchanting city. The high walls and deep moat that surround the Old Town add to its incredible charm, and with relics of the Classical, Ottoman and Italian eras layered among its buildings, it's a treasure-trove for any explorer! With a Medieval Old Town and a very much not medieval newer town, everyone will find something to love in Rhodes Town - whether it's rich history, contemporary culture, thriving nightlife or peaceful cafes. There are countless buildings well worth a visit inside the great walls of the Old Town, including the Palace of the Grand Master, lovingly preserved and maintained, as well as the Archaeological Museum in the Great Hospital of the Knights.

Another fantastic site worth visiting is the stunning Lindos Acropolis, a short drive south/north. Simply magnificent ancient citadel ruins up on the hilltop, overlooking the beautiful beaches below, you can't miss this incredible site during your stay on Rhodes! And once you've made the trip - why not pop over to the stunning Lindos beaches?

Rhodes International Airport is just 8 miles away, so you can be settling into this sublime villa within half an hour of landing!
